solving of the present Legislature, subject to the following reservations.

However, in the event of an electoral district, as at Representation in certain cases.
present existing, ceasing to be represented in the present Legislature through the death of its member or through any other cause, it shall be immediately represented as follows, according to the circumstances:

1. In the case of an electoral district annexed as a whole by this act to another electoral district to form but one, the member of the latter district shall be deemed to be the member of the two districts united and to represent both of them.

If such two districts cease to be represented in the present Legislature, the provisions of this act providing for their union into a single electoral district shall have effect forthwith:

2. In the case of an electoral district annexed by parts to other electoral districts the boundaries whereof have not been otherwise changed by this act, each of the members of the latter districts shall thenceforth be deemed to be, in the present Legislature, member for his electoral district and for the portion of the vacant electoral district annexed thereto;

3. In the case of an electoral district annexed by parts to electoral districts the boundaries whereof are otherwise changed and to electoral districts created by this act, the sitting member for the electoral district to which the dis-membering of a vacant electoral district adds the greatest number of electors, as entered upon the electoral lists in force in 1939, shall be deemed, in the present Legislature, to be the member representing the latter district as well as his own.

59. This act shall come into force on the day of its Coming into force.
