

CHAPTER 12

An Act respecting the establishing of an agricultural school at Nicolet

[Assented to, the 18th of March, 1938]

WHEREAS the spreading of agricultural teaching in Preamble.
the Province is an eminently national work;

Whereas the creating of regional agricultural schools is one of the most suitable means of assuring the normal development of such work;

Whereas it is advisable to leave the management of such schools to the best educationalists of our people, the religious corporations;

Whereas it is expedient for the Province to contribute to a large extent to the establishing of a regional agricultural school at Nicolet;

Therefore, His Majesty, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and of the Legislative Assembly of Quebec, enacts as follows:

1. The Lieutenant-Governor in Council, upon the recommendation of the Minister of Agriculture, is authorized to enter into, upon such conditions as he may determine, with a religious corporation, an agreement with a view to the establishing and maintaining, at Nicolet, of a regional agricultural school, and to pay for such purpose to the said corporation, out of the consolidated revenue fund, during a period of five years, an annual subsidy of twenty thousand dollars and a monthly allocation not exceeding nine dollars per pupil up to a number of eighty pupils.
