

CHAPTER 96

An Act to facilitate the exercise of certain rights

[Assented to, the 12th of April, 1938]

HIS MAJESTY, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and of the Legislative Assembly of Quebec, enacts as follows:

1. Every group of persons associated for the carrying out in common of any purpose or advantage of an industrial, commercial or professional nature in this Province, which does not possess therein a collective civil personality recognized by law and is not a partnership within the meaning of the Civil Code, is subjected to the provisions of section 2 of this act. Groups subject to application of section 2.

2. The summoning of such group before the courts of this Province, in any recourse provided by the laws of the Province, may be effected by summoning one of the officers thereof at the ordinary or recognized office of such group or by summoning such group collectively under the name by which it designates itself or is commonly designated or known. Summoning of group before courts.

The summoning by either method contemplated in the preceding paragraph shall avail against all the members of such group and the judgments rendered in the cause may be executed against all the moveable or immoveable property of such group. Execution of judgment.

3. This act shall come into force on the day of its sanction. Coming into force.
