“536. Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, no right of action shall exist against the city for damages resulting from bodily injury, caused by an accident, or for damages to moveable or immoveable property, unless within thirty days from the date of such accident or damages, and, in the case of accident and of damages caused by a fall on the sidewalk or the roadway, unless, within the ten days from the date of such accident, a written notice has been received by the city, containing the particulars of the damages sustained, indicating the surname, Christian names, occupation and address of the person who has suffered the same, giving the cause of such damages, and specifying the date and the place where the same occurred.

No action for damages or for compensation shall be instituted against the city before the expiration of thirty days from the date of the receipt of the above notice.

Failure to give the above notice shall not, however, deprive the victims of an accident of their right of action, if they prove that they have been hindered from giving such notice by irresistible force, or for any other similar reason deemed valid by the judge or the court, but no reason may be declared to be such, if the said victim has been able to communicate with some relation, friend or acquaintance during the course of the ten days above mentioned, or if, within the same delay, he has signed a document in favour of third parties by which he transfers to them a part of his claim.”

22. Section 45 of the act 4 George V, chapter 73, is replaced by the following:

“45. The executive committee may cause to be sold by public auction, by a bailiff of the Superior Court, without any legal formality, and after the notices required for a sale of personal property on execution, the articles, moveables or other personal property remaining unclaimed for twelve months, which may be in its possession, if such articles, moveables or personal property have been stolen or have been seized or confiscated by its police officers, or were in the possession of persons who have died and for whose funeral the city has had to provide. In the event of such property being claimed after the sale, the city shall be liable only for the proceeds of the sale, from which shall be deducted the costs of the sale and the other expenses which it may have incurred.

Destruction
of articles,
etc., in certain case.

If such articles, moveables or other personal property, not claimed as aforesaid, cannot be sold because they have no marketable value or on account of the illegal use which might be made thereof, such as offensive weapons, slot machines or such other devices, and if no court or judge has ordered the confiscation or destruction thereof according to law, they may be destroyed after publication of the same notices, mutatis mutandis. If such articles, moveables or other personal property are claimed after the destruction thereof, the city shall not be held to pay any indemnity or compensation therefor."

Validation
of resolution
approving
plan No.
G-15, Car-
tierville.

23. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 3 of the act 5 George V, chapter 101, the resolution of the council under date of the 18th of May, 1926, approving the homologation plan of Gouin boulevard, from the western limits of the parish of Sault-au-Récollet to the western limits of Ahuntsic ward, the said plan under date of the 12th of May, 1926, and designated under No. G-15, Cartierville, is declared valid and legal; and the building permits issued by the said city, according to the lines of said boulevard, as the same appear on the said plan, are declared to have been so issued validly and legally.

Validation
of plan No.
P-26, Sault-
au-Récollet.

24. Notwithstanding the provisions of the act 5 George V, chapter 110, section 4, the plan, under date of the 4th of October, 1934, designated under No. P-26, Sault-au-Récollet, establishing the lines of Perras boulevard, between St. Charles street and the eastern boundary of the city, is declared valid and legal.

9 Geo. V, c.
91, s. 3, replaced.

25. Section 3 of the act 9 George V, chapter 91, is replaced by the following:

Granting of certain con-
