

CHAPTER 83

An Act to amend the Quebec Insurance Act respecting the payment of certain endowments

[Assented to, the 19th of February, 1932]

HIS MAJESTY, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and of the Legislative Assembly of Quebec, enacts as follows:

1. The Quebec Insurance Act (Revised Statutes, 1925, R. S., c. 243, chapter 243) is amended by inserting therein, after section 217*b* thereof, as enacted by the act 20 George V, chapter 90, section 8, the following section:

“217c. When, under a contract of insurance of the person, a sum is payable to the insured as an endowment at the expiration of a certain time, the father of an insured who is a minor at the time of such endowment falling due may, failing an already-appointed tutor, validly receive, on behalf of the insured, the sum so payable, provided that it does not exceed four hundred dollars, and give a discharge therefor to the company.

If the father be dead, absent from the Province, or incapable of acting, the mother may likewise, and on the same conditions, receive the amount so payable to the insured and give a discharge therefor to the company.”

2. This act shall come into force on the day of its sanction.
