

CHAPTER 136

An Act to amend the charter of the Verchères, Chambly and Laprairie Tramways Company .

[Assented to, the 11th of March, 1931]

WHEREAS the Verchères, Chambly and Laprairie Tramways Company, a corporation having its head office in the city of Montreal, has, by its petition, represented:

That by reason of the present financial conditions, it will be unable to begin and complete the construction of its railway within the time fixed by its charter, the act 6 George V, chapter 77, and its amendments, the act 11 George V, chapter 138, the act 14 George V, chapter 106, and the act 16 George V, chapter 85;

That such period of time should be extended:

Whereas it is expedient to grant the said prayer;

Therefore, His Majesty, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and of the Legislative Assembly of Quebec, enacts as follows:

1. Section 18 of the act 6 George V, chapter 77, as replaced by the acts 11 George V, chapter 138, section 1; 14 George V, chapter 106, section 1, and 16 George V, chapter 85, section 1, is again replaced by the following:

“18. Section 180 of chapter 230 of the Revised Statutes, 1925, is replaced, for the company, by the following:

“180. If the construction of the railway be not commenced and completed within five years from the 25th day of March, 1931, the powers of the company shall cease and be null and void as respects so much of the said railway as then remains uncompleted.”

2. This act shall come into force on the day of its sanction.
