

CHAPTER 154

An Act to allow Samuel Jacob Aronsberg to change his name to Samuel John Dunning

[Assented to, the 22nd of February, 1929]

WHEREAS Samuel Jacob Aronsberg, of the city of Preamble.
Verdun, in the district of Montreal, theatre manager, has, by his petition, set forth that he is of the full age of majority and that he desires to change his surname from Samuel Jacob Aronsberg to Samuel John Dunning, on account of his having been known under the latter name ever since the date of the remarriage of his mother, Dame Lottie Hurron, to his stepfather, John Parnell Dunning, on the twenty-fifth day of July, in the year one thousand nine hundred and six, and has prayed for the passing of an act for that purpose, and that it is expedient to grant the said prayer:

Therefore, His Majesty, with the advice and the consent of the Legislative Council and of the Legislative Assembly of Quebec, enacts as follows:

1. The said Samuel Jacob Aronsberg shall hereafter be called and known by the name of Samuel John Dunning, and by the latter name shall hereafter claim, exercise and enjoy all advantages, benefits, rights and titles which, without such change of name, he would have been entitled to claim, exercise or enjoy; and all contracts, covenants and agreements made and entered into by him, by and under the name of Samuel Jacob Aronsberg, shall avail and be binding on him and be deemed entered into by him under the name of Samuel John Dunning, and all legacies or bequests contained in any will made in his favor by the name of Samuel Jacob Aronsberg shall avail to him as if the name of Samuel John Dunning had been mentioned therein, and also by the latter name he shall
