

CHAPTER 41

An Act to amend the Public Building Municipal Regulation Act

[Assented to, the 22nd of March, 1928]

HIS MAJESTY, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and of the Legislative Assembly of Quebec, enacts as follows:

1. Section 3 of the Public Building Municipal Regulation Act (Revised Statutes, 1925, chapter 112A, as enacted ^{R. S., c. 112A, s. 3,} by the act 17 George V, chapter 35, section 1) is amended ^{am.} by striking out the second and third paragraphs thereof.

2. The said act is amended by inserting therein, after Id., ss. 4 to section 3 thereof, as amended by section 1 of this act, the ^{8, added.} following sections:

“4. Every city or town contemplated by the preceding section may appoint commissions and sub-commissions to ^{Commissions, etc.} better supervise the construction, interior arrangement (aménagement) and operation of public buildings within its limits and define the respective powers of such commissions and sub-commissions.

“5. In addition to its general by-laws, such city or town may enact special regulations in order to secure better ^{Regulations for better} policing, keeping of order and supervision of its public buildings generally, and, more particularly, of establishments where shows, theatrical and moving picture performances, concerts, exhibitions, balls and amusements whatsoever to which the public is admitted, are given.

“6. The special regulations for each establishment may ^{Enactment} be enacted by the municipal council or by the commission ^{thereof.} appointed by it.

“7. The keeping of order and supervision may vary ^{Keeping of order.}

according to the nature, destination, use and importance of each establishment.

Costs.

"S. 1. Whenever such police, order and supervision services are deemed necessary, the cost thereof shall be paid by the directors of the establishments concerned. The municipal council may, for such purpose, establish a tariff of costs for the remuneration of the municipal firemen and policemen on duty during the performances or during the attendance of the public in such establishments.

Policing, etc., by civilians.

2. If the council deems expedient, it may, however, secure the policing, order and safety of such establishments by means of civilian firemen and agents chosen outside of the municipal police force, but, in such case, such firemen and agents shall be accepted by it and wear such special uniform as it shall order."

Coming into force.

3. This act shall come into force on the day of its sanction.
