

CHAPTER 37

An Act to amend section 427 of the Cities and Towns' Act

[Assented to, the 24th of March, 1926]

HIS MAJESTY, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and of the Legislative Assembly of Quebec, enacts as follows:

1. Section 427 of the Cities and Towns' Act (Revised R. S., c. 102, Statutes, 1925, chapter 102) is amended by replacing the ^{s. 427, am.} third paragraph of subsection 18 thereof by the following paragraphs:

"Notwithstanding the provisions of the first paragraph of this subsection 18, in the case of industries established for more than five years in a municipality, the power of regulation is limited to the authorization or confirmation of the location of such industries, which industries shall, however, continue to be governed by the laws respecting public health, and no person may prevent or limit the operation of such industries by way of injunction or any other legal proceedings, if such industries have been so authorized by municipal by-law, the recourse of any person suffering damages by reason of such operation being limited in such case to a claim for such damages and interest. ^{Power of regulation respecting certain industries. Injunction, etc., prohibited.}

No municipal by-law contemplated by the two preceding paragraphs may, after adoption, be repealed. ^{Recourse in damages. No repeal.}

2. This act shall come into force on the day of its sanction. ^{Coming into force.}
