An Act to amend article 36 of the Revised Statutes, 1909

[Assented to, the 19th of March, 1925]

Preamble. WHEREAS the Province of Quebec is the cradle of French civilization in America, and, since the time of the discovery of the country, has always been and still is the home of French-Canadians, Whereas French-Canadians, who form the immense majority therein, enjoy not only the widest political freedom, but, together with their historic rights, possess special civil rights, and in particular retain their own French laws;

Whereas from the standpoint of their collectivity, dignity requires that their national festival, St. John the Baptist's Day, the date whereof is the 24th of June, be declared a holiday;

Whereas they have long prayed for this and it is expedient to grant their prayer;

Therefore, His Majesty, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and of the Legislative Assembly of Quebec, enacts as follows:

1. Paragraph 24 of article 36 of the Revised Statutes, R. S., 36, § 1909, is amended by inserting therein, after the word: ^{24, am.} "Ascension", in the second line of sub-paragraph c thereof, the words: "the 24th of June, St. John the Baptist's Day".

2. This act shall come into force on the day of its ^{Coming into} sanction. _{force.}
