

such classification and remuneration as he shall deem just for the public officers and employees of the inside and outside services of the Province, having regard to the importance of the functions or duties which they perform, and may enact, notwithstanding any provision of the laws now in force, that the classification and remuneration so fixed shall be the ones that shall apply, from and after the date which he shall determine, to the said officers and employees.

2. The classification and remuneration provided for by section 1 of this act shall, however, be submitted to the Legislature, and such classification and remuneration shall thereafter be such as determined by the Legislature.

3. This act shall come into force on the day of its sanction.

CHAP. 19

An Act respecting the appeal to the Supreme Court of Canada and to His Majesty in His Privy Council from the opinion of the Court of King's Bench, (Appeal side), on questions relating to education in the Island of Montreal

[Assented to, the 3rd of April, 1925]

HIS MAJESTY, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and of the Legislative Assembly of Quebec, enacts as follows:

1. Notwithstanding the provisions of article 582 of the Revised Statutes of Quebec, 1909, an appeal shall lie to the Supreme Court of Canada, in conformity with section 42a of the Supreme Court Act, from the opinion or view of the Court of King's Bench (Appeal side), expressed in virtue of articles 579 and following of the Revised Statutes of Quebec, 1909, on the eleventh day of March, 1925, upon certain questions relative to the educational system in the Island of Montreal, and such opinion or view shall be deemed to be a final judgment rendered by the highest court of final resort of the Province of Quebec.

2. If, after the final judgment has been rendered by the Supreme Court of Canada upon such appeal, an application for leave to appeal to His Majesty in His Privy Council is made by one or the other of the parties, the denial of the right of appeal as contained in article 582 of the Revised Statutes of Quebec, 1909, shall be considered as non-existent, and shall not be interpreted as affecting the prerogative to grant such leave.

Parties to appeal.

3. The parties who may appeal to the Supreme Court of Canada or apply for leave to appeal to His Majesty in His Privy Council, in virtue of the preceding provisions, are the parties called together by the order of the Court of King's Bench (Appeal side), rendered on the fourth day of February, 1925, and any other interested party.

Coming into force.

4. This act shall come into force on the day of its sanction.

CHAP. 20

An Act to amend article 584 of the Revised Statutes, 1909, respecting inquiries concerning public matters

[Assented to, the 3rd of April, 1925]

HIS MAJESTY, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and of the Legislative Assembly of Quebec, enacts as follows:

R. S., 584, am.

1. Article 584 of the Revised Statutes, 1909, is amended by adding thereto the following paragraph:

Power exercised by Lt.-
Gov. in Council.

"The Lieutenant-Governor in Council shall, however, exercise the power conferred upon him under this article only with respect to precisely alleged accusations, actions or facts, and the inquiry shall extend only to such accusations, actions or facts, so alleged."

Coming into force.

2. This act shall come into force on the day of its sanction.
