An Act to incorporate Les Missionnaires Oblates du Sacré-Cœur et de Marie-Immaculée

[Assented to, the 15th of March, 1924]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Dames Corinne Allard, called Sister Marie Madeleine, Maria Béchard, called Sister Ida-de-Jésus, and Germaine Langevin, called Sister Sainte-Hélène, all three presently residing at Giffard, members of the community called Les Missionnaires Oblates de Saint-Boniface, and respectively superioress, assistant and religious sister of the convent which they propose to establish at Giffard, have, by their petition, represented:

That they are members of the community called Les Missionnaires Oblates de Saint-Boniface, incorporated under the laws of Manitoba;

That with the consent of the Roman Catholic religious authorities of the archdiocese of Quebec, they desire to open a convent of their Order at Giffard;

That the objects sought by the petitioners are the same as those of Les Religieuses Missionnaires Oblates de Saint-Boniface, namely, religious, charitable and educational objects;

That for the greater development of the convent which they propose to so establish at Giffard, and for the purpose of employing therefor all the resources at their disposal, it is necessary that they be incorporated as a distinct corporation, under the laws of this Province;

Whereas there is no objection to their petition, and it is expedient to grant the same;

Therefore, His Majesty, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and of the Legislative Assembly of Quebec, enacts as follows:

Incorporation.

1. Corinne Allard, called Sister Marie Madeleine, Maria Béchard, called Sister Ida-de-Jésus, and Germaine Langevin, called Sister Sainte-Hélène, all three presently residing at Giffard, in the county and district of Quebec, and all other persons at Giffard presently members of the community called Les Missionnaires Oblates de Saint-Boni-
