JOS. E. BRUNET, Notary, under the number nine thousand four hundred and ninety-four of his minutes; which act was sanctioned by His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor of the Province of Quebec on the twenty-first of December, one thousand nine hundred and twelve, and is contained in chapter 5 of the Statutes of Quebec, 3 George V, as follows, to wit:

Articles two, three and seven, which read as follows, to wit:

“2. The Government of this Province, so long as the reformatory school of the afore-mentioned Brothers is installed in the building now occupied by them in the city of Montreal, shall pay the said Brothers for each delinquent detained in the reformatory school or who may hereafter be lawfully confined there, the sum of one hundred and sixty dollars ($160.00) a year.

“3. The party of the first part undertakes, in every case, to pay to the party of the second part, for at least two hundred and thirty (230) children, at the rate of one hundred and sixty dollars ($160.00) per child, confined in the said reformatory school.

The number of two hundred and thirty means two hundred and thirty children who have been sentenced. Nevertheless those who have only been arrested provisionally, and have been received for a few days, shall in no way affect these prices, and they shall be reckoned at the rate of one hundred and sixty dollars.

“7. Any sum payable to the said Brothers under this agreement shall be paid them monthly, as follows: three thousand dollars at the end of each month, and the balance at the end of the quarter.”, are annulled and replaced by the three following new articles two, three and seven, to wit:

"2. The Government of this Province, so long as the reformatory school of the afore-mentioned Brothers is installed in the building now occupied by them in the city of Montreal, shall pay the said Brothers for each delinquent detained in the reformatory school or who may hereafter be lawfully confined there, the sum of two hundred ($200.00) dollars a year.

"3. The party of the first part undertakes, in every case, to pay to the party of the second part, for at least two hundred and thirty (230) children at the rate of two hundred ($200.00) dollars, per child, confined in the said reformatory school.

The number of two hundred and thirty means two hundred and thirty children who have been sentenced. Nevertheless those who have only been arrested provisionally, and have been received for a few days, shall in no way affect these prices, and they shall be reckoned at the rate of two hundred dollars ($200.00).

"7. Any sum payable to the said Brothers under this agreement shall be paid to them monthly, as follows: four thousand dollars ($4000.00) at the end of each month, and the balance at the end of the quarter."

The above amendments are made without novation or derogation to all the other clauses, conditions and stipulations contained in the deed of agreement entered into on the twenty-sixth of October nineteen hundred and twelve, which are in nowise affected by these presents.

This deed shall have a retroactive effect counting from the first of February, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one, and continuing until the expiring of the agreement now existing, and the new articles two, three and seven, as above set forth, shall have the same effect and bind the parties of the first and second parts in the same manner as if they had been inserted in the original deed of the twenty-sixth of October, nineteen hundred and twelve.

The costs of these presents shall be borne by the party of the first part, who shall supply a certified copy to the party of the second part.

This deed shall be submitted for the approval of the Legislature of the Province of Quebec at its next session and shall be ratified by it.
