

orphan asylums in any place in the Province of Quebec, and, for the purpose of education and instruction, it may establish workshops and agricultural, housekeeping or other industries, and sell the proceeds thereof for the benefit of its works.

5. The persons above mentioned shall constitute the Provisional board of provisional directors for the purpose of exercising directors. the powers of the corporation, until otherwise provided for, in accordance with by-laws that may be adopted.

6. The corporation shall send every year to the Provincial Secretary a statement of its moveables and immoveables, and the names of its officers. Statement to Prov. Sec.

7. This act shall come into force on the day of its sanction. Coming into force.

CHAP. 153

An Act to incorporate the Educational and Charitable Institute

[Assented to, 25th of February, 1921]

WHEREAS William Joseph O'Leary, electrical engineer; Preamble. Noah Timmins, financier, and David R. Murphy, public officer, all three of the city of Westmount, in the Province of Quebec, have, by their petition, represented that their constitution into a body politic and corporate without share capital under the corporate name of "The Educational and Charitable Institute", is advantageous in the public interest and for themselves;

Whereas they have applied to be so incorporated and to be vested with the necessary powers as hereinafter mentioned; and whereas it is expedient to grant their prayer;

Therefore, His Majesty, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and of the Legislative Assembly of Quebec, enacts as follows:

1. The persons above named, their successors and such Corporation others as may become members of the corporation hereby created. created, are hereby incorporated as a body politic and corporate without share capital under the corporate name Name. of the "Educational and Charitable Institute".

2. The object and purpose of the corporation shall be Objects.

the promotion of education and of charitable organizations.

Corporate seat.

3. The above petitioners and any other person who may, as herein provided, replace them or be added to them, are constituted a perpetual corporation, having its corporate seat and principal establishment in the city of Montreal.

Powers.

4. The corporation shall have perpetual succession and a common seal, with power to break, change and alter the same from time to time at pleasure, and shall be legally capable of suing and being sued in all manner of actions, matters and causes whatsoever.

Powers.

5. The corporation shall be legally capable of contracting and being contracted with, relative to the property and funds of the said corporation, and its objects and purposes.

Powers.

6. The corporation shall have full power to make, establish and put into execution, alter or repeal such by-laws, rules, ordinances and regulations not contrary to the laws of this Province or the provisions of this act, as the said corporation shall deem useful and necessary for carrying out its objects and purposes.

Powers.

7. The corporation shall have power to acquire under any legal title whatsoever property, real and personal, which may hereafter be sold, ceded, exchanged, given, conveyed or left by will to the corporation, and to sell or alienate the same for the promotion of its purposes.

Powers.

8. The corporation shall be vested with full powers to make donations and gifts to other corporations, associations or individuals for the purposes of education or charity.

Powers.

9. The corporation shall be vested with full powers to accept and receive donations or gifts of property, moveable or immovable, corporeal or incorporeal, of any kind whatsoever.

Limit to value of immovable property.

10. The value of the immovable property situate within this Province belonging to the corporation shall not exceed, at any time, the annual value of one hundred thousand dollars.

Bequests,

11. Nevertheless, no donation or bequest of immovable property in favour of the corporation shall be null by reason only that it increases the value of its immoveable property in the Province beyond the limit above mentioned; but the corporation shall be bound within a delay of two years from the acceptance of such donation or bequest, to alienate one or more of the immoveable properties belonging to it, so as to reduce such value to the limit fixed.

etc. not to be null on account of exceeding limit.

Proviso.

12. The corporation may own, control or manage newspapers, magazines or periodicals for educational or charitable purposes, or assist financially or otherwise such publications.

Management of newspapers, etc.

13. The corporation may, if deemed expedient for its purposes, acquire and hold shares in incorporated companies publishing or interested in the publication of newspapers, magazines or periodicals.

Shares in companies.

14. The three above petitioners shall have power and authority to elect and choose, as soon as they, or a majority of them, deem it expedient, one or more additional members of the corporation; the total membership of the corporation shall not exceed, at any time, nine; such additional members, when so appointed, shall have all the rights, powers and authority which are hereby vested in the three original members of the corporation.

New members.

Limit of membership.

15. A majority of the members of the corporation the time being shall be a quorum for the transaction of all business by the corporation.

Quorum.

16. Whenever a vacancy or vacancies shall occur in the membership of the corporation, by the death, resignation, neglect or refusal of a member to act, the said vacancy or vacancies shall be filled by the person or persons constituting for the time being the corporation.

Filling of vacancies.

17. When a vacancy or vacancies shall thus be filled by the election of a person or persons chosen by a majority vote of the surviving or remaining members, the person or persons thus elected shall have the rights, powers and authority of the original members of the corporation.

Rights of new members.

18. It shall be lawful for the said corporation to invest any or all the funds thereof according to the provisions of article 981o of the Civil Code.

Investment of funds.

19. The members of the corporation shall not receive

Remuneration of mem- any remuneration for their services as members thereof, but the corporation may employ and pay for the services of any one or more corporations, associations or individuals; the corporation may appoint an attorney or attorneys at such salary or salaries as may be agreed upon, for the management of its affairs and the protection of its interests.

Interpretation.

20. Nothing in this act contained shall have the effect of granting to the corporation the right of exercising the privileges and prerogatives generally possessed by the university corporations entrusted with superior or secondary education.

Statement to Lt. Gov.
in C.

21. The corporation shall transmit to the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, when thereunto required by the Provincial Secretary, a detailed statement of its moveable and immoveable property, the names of its officers, and a certified copy of its rules and regulations.

Coming into force.

22. This act shall come into force on the day of its sanction.

C H A P. 154

An Act to incorporate Le Refuge Dom Bosco

[Assented to, 25th of February, 1921]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Canons Lionel Lindsay, Eugène Laflamme, Roméo Guimont; Abbés Ferdinand Vandry, Georges Philippon; the Honourable Cyrille F. Delâge, Superintendent of Public Instruction, and Messrs. François Canac-Marquis, Joseph Aimé Déry, manufacturers, Elzéar Turcotte, and Pierre Célestin Falardeau, merchants, all residing in the city of Quebec, have, by their petition, prayed to be incorporated under the name of Le Refuge Dom Bosco for the purpose of working for the moral and social rehabilitation of young boys;

Whereas this work has been in existence for several years and has received the approval of the Roman Catholic religious authorities of the archdiocese of Quebec;

Whereas it is expedient to grant the prayer of the said petitioners;

Therefore, His Majesty, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and of the Legislative Assembly of Quebec, enacts as follows: