CHAP. 166

An Act respecting the estate of the late Honourable J. O. Villeneuve

[Assented to, 19th of March, 1921]

WHEREAS Mr. James O. Villeneuve, accountant, of the city and district of Montreal, has, by his petition, represented:

Preamble.

That by his will, dated the 16th of October, 1900, executed before Jos. P. Landry and Hilaire Hurteau, notaries, the Honourable Joseph Octave Villeneuve, Senator of the Dominion of Canada, after having willed some particular legacies, bequeathed the residue of his property, moveable and immoveable, to the living children, born or to be born of his children: Jacques, Eugène, Frédéric and Rachel, in equal shares, making them his universal legatees;

That the testator died on the 27th of June, 1901;

That, under the fifth clause of his will, the testator directed his testamentary executors to provide for the maintenance and education of his universal legatees, and authorizes them to give them therefor an annual rent of two hundred dollars, from the age of eight, and to pay them, on their becoming of age, the capital of such rent, which he fixed at four thousand dollars;

That the testator willed that the residue of the property bequeathed remain in the hands of his testamentary executors until the final partition of his property which was to take place only twenty years after his death;

That, in conformity with the testator's will, the partition of his property is to take place on the 27th of June next, 1921;

That since the testator's decease, owing to special circumstances, certain alterations have been made in the provisions of this will by the acts 2 Edward VII, chapter 115; 7 Edward VII, chapter 136; 5 George V, chapter 160, and 9 George V, chapter 159, and that the estate has since then been governed by the will of the 16th of October, 1900, as interpreted or altered by the said acts;

That, since the testator's death, all the moveable and immoveable property in the estate have been administered as a whole and as a going concern;

That the will was declared subject to trusteeship;

That, at the time of the partition provided for by the will, the testamentary executors must provide for the repayment of the rents mentioned in the will and in the aforesaid acts;

That it would be greatly detrimental to the interested parties if the estate were liquidated and its assets, consisting chiefly of immoveables, were divided immediately owing to the present condition of the real estate market;

That, in the interest of the heirs, the administration of the affairs of the estate should be continued by the testamentary executors until the 27th of June, 1923;

And whereas it is expedient to grant such prayer;

Therefore, His Majesty, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and of the Legislative Assembly of Quebec, enacts as follows:

Executors

to continue administration till 1923.

1. The testamentary executors of the estate of the Honourable J. O. Villeneuve are authorized to continue the administration of the estate until the 27th of June, 1923, and they may during the interval distribute among the universal legatees, minors as well as those of age, the moveable assets of the estate, but the investment of the part belonging to the minors shall be made in accordance with the provisions of article 981*o* of the Civil Code.

Rights, etc.
to continue.

2. The rights and obligations already provided by the acts 2 Edward VII, chapter 115; 7 Edward VII, chapter 136; 5 George V, chapter 160, and 9 George V, chapter 159, shall continue to exist under the said statutes, save as to the second paragraph of section 3 of the act 2 Edward VII, chapter 115, as replaced by the act 7 Edward VII, chapter 136, section 1, and which is amended by inserting therein, after the word: "rent", in the second line thereof, the words: "plus twenty-five dollars per month".

An Act respecting the estate of the late Honourable Jean Louis Beaudry

[Assented to, 19th of March, 1921]

WHEREAS Dame Corinne Herminie Beaudry, widow ^{Preamble.} of Rouer Roy; the Misses Amélie, Alice, Berthe and Gabrielle Roy; Dame Corinne Roy, wife of Arthur Therroux and the latter both personally and in his capacity of tutor to Joseph Wilton Rouer Roy, and Arthur Richard Roy, minor children of the late Joseph R. Roy, all of Montreal; Dame Alphonsine Roy, wife of Frank Houghton, and the said Frank Houghton, both of the city of Calgary, Alberta; and Dame Marie Louise Roy, wife of Gerald A. Dillon, and the said Gerald A. Dillon, both of Ottawa, Ontario, the only interested parties in the estate of the late Honourable Jean-Louis Beaudry, have, by their petition, represented:

That the late Jean Louis Beaudry, who died at Montreal on the 25th of June, 1886, by his will dated the 29th of December, 1881, and by his codicil dated the 14th of September, 1885, made before Mr. Antoine Ovide Brousseau and colleague, appointed his daughter, Dame Corinne Herminie Beaudry, wife of Rouer Roy, one of his universal legatees as institute in a substitution, and the children of the latter as substitutes, to receive his estate at her death;

That among the property so bequeathed to them are the immoveables hereinafter described, all situate in the city of Montreal, and built upon long ago;

That, owing to the length of time since the testator's death, such immoveables are out of date, that the revenues from them are decreasing from year to year and their rebuilding would require a sum which the petitioners are unable to pay;

That the petitioners, in the past, for the reasons above set forth, had to refuse advantageous offers for the sale of the said immoveables, the proceeds of which would have
