

the Bar and deemed this sufficient, thinking that with his diploma it was not necessary to be admitted to the study of law;

That he studied, under indenture, during four years, in a lawyer's office, in Montreal, and that he attended law courses in a university;

That he presented himself for admission to the practice of law, at the Bar examinations, in July, 1906, and after justification, with proofs in support of the above facts, the General Council of the Bar of the Province of Quebec rejected his request for permission to undergo such examinations, but declared that it gave its approval to a bill to be presented remedying the above irregularities, the refusal of the Council being based on its lack of jurisdiction in such a case;

That he has hitherto been unable to avail himself of this resolution of the General Council of the Bar, owing to his absence and for other good reasons;

Whereas he has, by his petition, prayed that an act be passed to remedy the above irregularities, and it is expedient to grant the prayer contained in said petition;

Therefore, His Majesty, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and of the Legislative Assembly of Quebec, enacts as follows:

1. The Bar of the Province of Quebec is authorized to Bar dispense the said Louis Chabot from the preliminary examination for admission, to admit him among its members and to allow him to practise law, after examination. ^{Bar authorized to admit L. Chabot.}

2. This act shall come into force on the day of its sanction. ^{Coming into force.}

CHAP. 180

An Act to authorize the Bar of the Province of Quebec to admit Tancred Marsil among its members after examination

[Assented to, 19th of March, 1921]

WHEREAS Tancred Marsil, journalist, of the city ^{Preamble.} of Montreal, has, by his petition, represented:

That he is a British subject, aged 39 years, and that he practised the profession of journalist for many years in Montreal;

That he went through his complete studies in the following colleges: St. Mary's College, Ste. Thérèse Seminary and Bourget College, Rigaud, where he completed his studies about 1901;

That about 1903, he presented himself before the board of examiners of the Bar of the Province of Quebec for admission to the study of law; that he successfully underwent his written examinations on letters and sciences, and also the oral examination on letters, but failed in the oral examination on sciences;

That he was then indentured to Messrs. Dandurand, Brodeur and Boyer, lawyers, practising their profession in Montreal, and studied in their office for four years;

That he also attended the law courses at Laval University during four years;

That he now wishes to be admitted as a member of the Bar of the Province of Quebec, after undergoing the usual examinations for admission to practise law and to be authorized to practise his profession immediately after;

That at its meeting of the 3rd of February, 1921, the General Council of the Bar of the Province of Quebec adopted a resolution approving the passing of this act;

And whereas the petitioner has prayed for the passing of an act for the aforesaid purposes; and it is expedient to grant his prayer;

Therefore His Majesty, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and of the Legislative Assembly of Quebec, enacts as follows:

Bar
to admit
T. Marsil.

1. The Bar of the Province of Quebec is authorized to admit the said Tancrede Marsil among its members, after he has undergone the regular examinations for admission to practise law, and to allow him to practise law immediately after having successfully passed the said examinations.

Coming into force.

2. This act shall come into force on the day of its sanction.
