C H A P. 63

An Act respecting the admission to the practice of law of students who have been on active service

[Assented to, 14th of February, 1920]

Preamble.

WHEREAS McGill University has decided to give a course in law during the summer of 1920, to students who have been on active service, to permit them to complete the number of lectures required before final examination;

Therefore, His Majesty, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and of the Legislative Assembly of Quebec, enacts as follows:

Examination of students at law who were on active service, for admission
to practice.

1. Students at law admitted to the study of law in January, 1920, or prior thereto, and who have been on active military or naval service during the last war, in Canada or over-seas, in His Majesty's Army or Navy, may be admitted by the Council of the Bar to the regular examination for admission to practice, and may receive their certificate of advocate, after examination, notwithstanding the fact that they have had only two years of clerkship, provided they have obtained a degree of Bachelor of Civil Law or L. L. B., as the case may be, and have attended the number of lectures required by the by-laws of the Bar; and provided also that, in order to take advantage of this act, such students must take such examination not later than July, 1923.

Coming into force.

2. This act shall come into force on the day of its sanction.
