

Therefore His Majesty, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and of the Legislative Assembly of Quebec, enacts as follows:

Name of Joseph
Cadieux
changed to Joseph
Aumand
Cadieux.

1. The said Joseph Cadieux shall hereafter be called and known by the name of "Joseph Aumand Cadieux," and by the latter name shall hereafter exercise and enjoy all advantages, benefits, rights and titles, which, without such change of name, he would have been entitled to claim, exercise or enjoy; and all confirmatory certificates and other diplomas granted to him under the name of Joseph Aumand Cadieux, and all contracts, private documents or public deeds, agreements and covenants heretofore made passed and entered into by or for him, under the name of Joseph Aumand Cadieux, Joseph A. Cadieux or J. A. Cadieux, shall avail to and be binding on him and for all purposes be deemed entered into and executed by and under his real name; and all legacies and bequests contained in any will made in his favor, under the name of Joseph Aumand Cadieux, shall avail to him; and under the latter name he shall recover, hold and possess and be capable of inheriting all immoveable or moveable property and rights of any nature or kind whatsoever, which he may at present have, hold or possess or which hereafter he may be capable of inheriting, recovering, holding or possessing, as fully and to the same extent as if the change of name had not hereby been made.

2. All rights and privileges generally of whatever nature and kind soever that may be hereby acquired by the said Joseph Aumand Cadieux, or which may hereafter be acquired under this act, shall apply to his children, descendants and representatives.

Coming into force.

3. This act shall come into force on the day of its sanction.

CHAP. 163

An Act to permit Morris Alfred Thompson to change his name to Maurice Alfred Madley

[Assented to, 4th of March, 1919]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Morris Alfred Thompson, of the city of Westmount, clerk, son of John Thompson and Mary A. Morris, his wife, both of Montreal, was born in the town of St. Cunegonde on the 11th of July, 1895, and was baptized by the minister of Zion Congregational Church on the 1st of February, 1896; and

Whereas the mother of the said Morris Alfred Thompson died when he was but fourteen days old and he was immediately taken into the home of his uncle and aunt, to wit, Henry A. Madley and wife, by whom he was gratuitously brought up and educated under the name of Maurice Alfred Madley; and

Whereas Henry Alfred Madley departed this life in the year 1908, and his widow has continued the gratuitous care and upbringing of the said Morris A. Thompson under the name of Maurice A. Madley, by which name he has always been known; and

Whereas Morris Alfred Thompson now desires permission and authority to continue the use of the name Maurice Alfred Madley; and

Whereas considerable confusion and inconvenience would result if he were to discontinue the use of the name Maurice Alfred Madley and adopt his baptismal name; and

Whereas in order to avoid confusion and inconvenience in view of the contingencies of marriage, effecting life insurance, purchasing of real estate and engaging in business generally, it is expedient to grant the petition of the said Morris Alfred Thompson;

Therefore His Majesty, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and of the Legislative Assembly of Quebec, enacts as follows:

1. The said Morris Alfred Thompson is hereby authorized to change his name to Maurice Alfred Madley, to wit, ^{Morris Alfred Thompson authorized to change his name.} the name of his adoptive parents, and the minister of Zion Congregational Church and the Prothonotary of the Superior Court for the District of Montreal are authorized to indicate such change of name by reference to this act by marginal note or statement or additional note or statement in the registers of civil status kept in connection with the said Zion Congregational Church, and to give certified copies or extracts from such registers indicating such change, upon payment of the fees established by law.

2. This act shall come into force on the day of its ^{Coming into force.} sanction.
