An Act to amend article 892 of the Code of Civil Procedure

[Assented to 9th March, 1916]

HIS MAJESTY, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and of the Legislative Assembly of Quebec, enacts as follows:

1. Article 892 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended by adding thereto three new paragraphs, as follows: Art. 892, C. C. P., am.

“The curator, being still subject to the provisions of articles 833 and 834, upon his failing or neglecting to comply with the provisions of this article with respect to the deposits required, is, moreover, liable to a fine of not more than ten dollars for each day in default, and to the payment of the costs. Fine for curator in default.

One-half of such fine belongs to the Crown, for the uses of the Province, and the other half to the party suing for the same, unless the suit be brought on behalf of the Crown alone, or in its name, in which case the whole of the fine belongs to the Crown, for the uses aforesaid. To whom fine belongs.

Such fine may be recovered before any court of competent jurisdiction in civil matters up to the amount of the fine, by any person suing therefor in conformity with articles 7538 to 7541 of the Revised Statutes, 1909.” Recovery of fine.

2. This act shall come into force on the day of its sanction. Coming into force.
