An Act to authorize the executors of the will of the late Joseph Bowles Learmont, to give "Quebec House" to the Dominion of Canada.

[Assented to 5th March, 1915]

Preamble. WHEREAS Dame Charlotte Smithers, widow of the late Joseph Bowles Learmont, and the Royal Trust Company, have by their petition represented:

That they are sole executors under the last will and testament of the said late Joseph Bowles Learmont, in his lifetime of the city and district of Montreal, executed the 20th July, 1911, before Henry Fry and colleague, notaries;

That there is included in the estate of the said late Joseph Bowles Learmont a certain immoveable property known as "Quebec House" situate in the east end of the town of Westerham in the county of Kent in England, which was the birthplace and early home of Major-General James Wolfe;

That the said late Joseph Bowles Learmont, shortly before his death, offered to the Dominion of Canada the said property, being desirous that the said property should be utilized and maintained in perpetuity in memory of the late Major-General James Wolfe by the Canadian people, but died before any transfer of the said property had been made;

That such of the residuary legatees under the will of the said Joseph Bowles Learmont as are legally capable of giving their consent are desirous that the wishes of the deceased shall be carried out, and

Whereas it is desirable to remove any doubt that may exist as to the power of the said executors to give effect to the said offer, and

Whereas it is expedient to grant the prayer of the said petitioners;

Therefore His Majesty, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and of the Legislative Assembly of Quebec, enacts as follows:

1. The said Dame Charlotte Smithers and the Royal Trust Company, and their successors in the trust, as executors of the will of the said late Joseph Bowles Learmont, and on behalf of his heirs and legatees, are hereby authorized to make a gift of the said immoveable property known as "Quebec House" with the gardens, stables and appurtenances thereto belonging, situate and lying in the east end of the town of Westerham, fronting on the main road from Seven Oaks to Godstone in the county of Kent in England, to the Dominion of Canada, or to such trustees and upon such trusts as may be requested or sanctioned by His Excellency the Governor-General in Council.

2. This act shall come into force on the day of its sanction.
