An Act to amend the act to incorporate the Association of Opticians of the Province of Quebec and to change its name to that of "the Association of Optometrists and Opticians of the Province of Quebec".

[Assented to 19th February, 1914]

Preamble.

WHEREAS the Association of Opticians of the Province of Quebec, incorporated by the acts 6 Edward VII, chapter 89, 9 Edward VII, chapter 130 and 2 George V, chapter 110, has, by its petition, represented that it is in the interest of the proper administration of the association and of the public that certain additional powers pertaining to its working be granted it and that its name be changed as hereinafter mentioned;

Whereas it is expedient to grant the prayer to that effect contained in the said petition;

Therefore, His Majesty, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and of the Legislative Assembly of Quebec, enacts as follows:

Change of name.

1. The name of the Association of Opticians of the Province of Quebec is changed to that of "The Association of Optometrists and Opticians of the Province of Quebec."

Not to affect rights and liabilities.

Such change of name shall not affect the rights and liabilities of the association, and all actions or proceedings that could have been taken against or by the association under its former name, may be taken or continued against or by it under its new name.

6 Ed. VII, c. 89, s. 5, replaced.

2. Section 5 of the act 6 Edward VII, chapter 89, is replaced by the following:

Special and general meetings.

"5. It shall be lawful for the members of the corporation to have general meetings once a year, and also special general meetings as the council may deem advisable from time to time. The annual general meetings shall take place in the city of Montreal or in any other city on the first Monday in May of each year or the nearest day thereto as may be decided by the council; and, moreover, upon a written requisition of ten members of the corporation having the right to vote, calling upon the council to call a special general meeting of the members of the corporation for the purpose of taking into consideration the objects specified in the requisition, a meeting shall accordingly be convened by the said council within such delay as the latter may deem advisable, after notice thereof and of its object shall have been given, in accordance with the requirements of the by-laws of the corporation."

How special meetings to be called.

3. This act shall come into force on the day of its sanction.

An Act respecting the testamentary estate of the late Joseph Lalande.

[Assented to 19th February, 1914]

WHEREAS Joseph Lalande, of the city of Montreal, manager, has by his petition, represented: Preamble.

That in virtue of the last will and testament of his father, the late Joseph Lalande, dated the 13th of February, 1888, made before A. C. Decary, and his colleague, notaries, registered at the registry office of Montreal East, the 15th of August, 1890, as No. 26804, he has the usufruct, as institute, of the immoveable property known and designated as No. 90, of the official plan and book of reference of St. James Ward of the City of Montreal;

That the said will, notwithstanding the substitution therein contained and the prohibition to alienate therein prescribed, allows the petitioner to dispose of the said immoveable, by will in favor of one or more of his children, at his choice;

That the wife of the said petitioner, Dame Hermine Desjardins, named as institute,—as long as she remains unmarried, in the event of the decease of her husband, without leaving any children,—is still living;

That Dame Dosithee Lalande, in her lifetime, widow of the late Jules Lajeunesse, named as institute,—in the event of the decease of the said petitioner and of his wife Dame Hermine Desjardins, without leaving any children,—is herself now deceased without leaving any children;
