CHAP. 72

An Act to incorporate Mount Royal as a town.

[Assented to 21st December, 1912]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Thomas Darling and Frederick H. Shaw, agents, of the city and district of Montreal and James Barbour, agent, of the city of Toronto have, by their petition, represented that several farms have been acquired by them in the parish of St. Laurent near the city of Montreal with the view of subdividing them into building lots and, in fact, the subdivision plans showing the location of the lots, streets and avenues are made and the said properties are offered for sale to the public;

That, since they acquired such immoveable properties in the said place, a great many building lots have been sold and conceded and it is expedient to provide that territory with modern improvements such as electric light, communication with Montreal by tunnels, rapid transit by tramways and improvements in the streets, &c.;

That, in order to effect such improvements it is necessary to erect the said territory into a town with the usual and necessary powers conferred by the Cities and Towns' Act;

Whereas it is expedient to grant the prayer contained in the said petition;

Therefore, His Majesty, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and of the Legislative Assembly of Quebec, enacts as follows:
