

CHAP. 130

An Act to confirm the charter of "The Manitou Club" and to extend its powers.

[Assented to 14th March, 1912.]

WHEREAS a petition has been presented by "The Manitou Club," which was incorporated, under the provisions of article 5487 of the Revised Statutes of Quebec, 1888, in the month of August, 1906, praying for an act to confirm its charter and to extend its powers so as to give it similar rights and privileges to those enjoyed by the Rivermead Golf Club under the act 1 George V, (2nd session), chapter 117;

And whereas it is expedient to grant such prayer;

Therefore, His Majesty, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and of the Legislative Assembly of Quebec, enacts as follows:

1. The corporation known as "The Manitou Club" (hereinafter called "the club") shall by that name continue to be a body politic and corporate and shall have perpetual succession and a common seal. It shall continue to own the property, both moveable and immoveable, now belonging to the said club and to be responsible for its debts and obligations.

2. The objects of the club shall be to maintain, establish and conduct a club for the purposes of fishing, shooting, aquatic sports, tennis, golf, bowling and other games; and further to establish, conduct and continue a club or association for social purposes for the accommodation of the members of the club and others and generally to afford to members and to others all the usual privileges, advantages, conveniences and accommodation of a gymnasium and a general club.

3. The said club shall have power:

(a) To provide, by purchase or otherwise, all moveable and immoveable property necessary for the purposes of the club or for its use or occupation, and the said property to pledge, sell, alienate and dispose of and to acquire others instead thereof and to hypothecate its immoveables;

(b) To hold, own, lay out and prepare waters or grounds at lake Manitou in the township of Beresford or in any part of the county of Terrebonne for the purpose of fishing, shooting, aquatic sports, tennis, golf, bowling and other games and sports and to provide all the necessary appurtenances in connection therewith including club houses and other conveniences for the purposes of the members;

(c) To promote fishing, shooting, aquatic sports, tennis, golf, bowling and other games and sports and to arrange matches and competitions and offer, grant and contribute towards prizes, awards and distinctions;

(d) To enter into any agreement to purchase lease or acquire the properties, rights, franchises, powers, assets or privileges of any other club or company or to sell to or amalgamate with any other club or company having similar powers in part or in whole;

(e) To issue or allot paid up stock in the club to each member present or future to the extent of his subscription as a member in said club. Such stock shall be non-transferable except with the consent in writing of the committee of management or board of directors of the said club. Upon the death, resignation or expulsion of a member of the club the share or shares so held by such member shall ipso facto revert to the club, which is hereby authorized to re-issue the same to any new member notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary; such forfeiture shall be effected by resolution of the board of directors;

(f) To sell, lease or otherwise dispose of the property and assets of the club or any part thereof for such consideration as the club may deem fit, including shares, debentures or securities of any company purchasing or acquiring the same, or to hypothecate its immoveable property;

(g) The lands or property possessed by the club for the purposes thereof, may, so long as the municipality within which they are situated is not created a town corporation be valued by the council of the municipality in its discretion, in the valuation roll, according to their value for agricultural purposes notwithstanding anything contained in article 718 of the Municipal Code.

R.S.Q., 5997, 4. Article 5997 of the Revised Statutes, 1909, is replaced for the club by the following:
