An Act to incorporate the municipality of the western part of Boyer township.

[Assented to 24th March, 1911]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Alexis Ringuet and Joseph Husereau, farmers; Uranie Baribeau, mill-owner, Pierre Roussel, mill-owner and others, of Boyer township, in the county of Ottawa, have, by their petition, represented that they, with other land owners already constitute a village with a post office, railway station, mills and stores; that they wish to build a chapel and schools and provide more effectively for the maintenance of their roads and that it would be advisable to erect their territory into a municipality by a special act inasmuch as the Municipal Code
