An act to incorporate The Montreal Curling Club

[Assented to 24th March, 1911]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Henry B. Brainerd, manufacturer, Allan R. Oughtred, advocate and King's Counsel ; John Baillie, manufacturer ; Charles E. Archibald, gentleman ; James W. Pyke, manufacturer ; William Taylor, railway clerk ; Andrew Scott Robertson, accountant, all of the city of Montreal ; Thomas Williamson, manufacturer, and Henry E. Suckling, treasurer of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company, both of the city of Westmount, have by their petition, represented that they wish to be incorporated as a corporation under the name of "The Montreal Curling Club" and

Whereas they have further represented that an association formed for the purpose of promoting and practising the game of curling has existed in the city of Montreal under the name of the Montreal Curling Club since the year 1807 continuously to the present date ;

That the said association was granted a municipal charter by the mayor and council of the city of Montreal on the 17th June, 1889, under the provisions of articles 5487 and following of the Revised Statutes of Quebec ;

That the said association acting in virtue of the said municipal charter acquired certain immoveable property in the city of Montreal and erected thereon a building which is now in use as a curling rink, and which also contains club rooms for its members ; and which building has been equipped with the furniture and effects necessary to carry out the objects for which the association was formed ;

That the said association issued three thousand one hundred and eighty-eight shares of stock of the par value of five dollars per share to its members and has received payment therefor ;

That further corporate powers are desirable and necessary for the welfare of the association ;

Whereas the petitioners have established the allegations of their petition ;

Therefore, His Majesty, with the advice and consent of the
