CHAP. 98

An Act to incorporate Le Monastère de l'Immaculée Conception des Ursulines de Rimouski

[Assented to 4th June, 1910]

Preamble.

WHEREAS it has been represented by the petition of the undermentioned persons, that since 1906, they have kept and administered in the town of St. Germain de Rimouski, a branch house of the community called : Les Dames Ursulines de Québec, whereof they form part and are members ;

That the objects of the petitioners are the same as those of the said Dames Ursulines de Québec ;

That to better attain the said objects and in order that the administration of the said house at Rimouski may be easier and more expeditious, it is to the interest and advantage of the petitioners that they be incorporated and constitute a body of persons distinct from the Dames Ursulines de Québec ;

Whereas there is no objection to their petition and it is expedient to grant the same ;

Therefore, His Majesty, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and of the Legislative Assembly of Quebec, enacts as follows :

1. Angéline Leclerc, in religion, mother Marie de la Pré-sentation ; Blanche Goulet, in religion, mother Saint-Catherine de Sienne ; Thérèse d'Arcy Duggan, in religion, mother mother Marie de l'Annonciation, all of the town of St. Germain de Rimouski, in the county and district of Rimouski, and all such other persons of Rimouski as are now members of the community called : Les Dames Ursulines de Québec, as well as all who may hereafter form part of the said community or corporation hereinafter mentioned, in accordance with its laws, constitution and by-laws, are incorporated under the name of "Le Monastère de l'Immaculée Conception des Ursu- lines de Rimouski." Persons incorporated.

2. The said corporation shall have its corporate seat in the town of St. Germain de Rimouski. Corporate seat.

3. The corporation shall have perpetual succession, and may have a common seal which it may alter at will, appear before the courts in the same manner as any person may do ; borrow, sign bills of exchange and promissory notes ; accept, acquire and possess by any legal title moveable and immoveable property which it may lease, sell, exchange, grant or otherwise alienate by any title whatsoever and, in the case of immoveables, hypothecate ; in a word, exercise all powers necessary for its purposes in the manner and under the conditions determined by the constitution, rules and by-laws of the community ; provided, however, that the capital value of the immoveables held by the company for purposes of revenue, shall not exceed $250,000. Powers.

4. The corporation shall be governed according to the rules of the community, and it may adopt rules or by-laws which it may afterwards amend or repeal, respecting the internal government of its houses or establishments, the administration and disposal of its property, the election, number and power of its officers, procurators and administrators, the attributes of each of its members and their admission and removal. By-laws, &c.

5. The corporation may found, establish and maintain at any place in this Province, monasteries, branches and novitiates, houses for students, boarding schools, housekeeping schools or other educational establishments for young girls ; erect such buildings as may be suitable for its purposes in any locality in which it may have an establishment ; establish, Founding of monasteries,

in conformity with the conditions and formalities required by law and the by-laws of the Board of Health of the Province of Quebec, a cemetery upon the property of each of such establishments, or a vault in each of its chapels in which shall be deposited the mortal remains of the members or benefactors of the community, or of any other person connected with the same in any manner, and keep a register of burials with regard to such persons.

Council.        6. The corporation may manage and administer its affairs through the council of the community elected and designated according to the constitution and by-laws of the said community, and appoint procurators or administrators among its members or procurators outside the community.

Who act for corporation.    7. The signatures of the members of the council or of any other person designated by the resolution of the said council shall bind the said corporation.

Effect of certain acts.        8. All acts done by the said nuns since they have been established at Rimouski shall be valid as if this act had been in force at the time when the said acts were done.

Transmission of statement.    9. The corporation shall, when thereunto required by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, transmit a statement of the moveables and immoveables held by it under this act, a list of its officers, and a certified copy of its rules and by-laws.

Coming into force.        10. This act shall come into force on the day of its sanction.
