

to the children who are legatees of the said late J. H. Wilson and to his special legatees is four thousand two hundred dollars;

That the prosperous condition of the affairs of the said business, will permit the testamentary executors increasing to the amount of five hundred dollars for each child, the annual rent payable to them under the terms of the will of the said late J. H. Wilson until the partition of his property ;

That the said testamentary executors are of opinion that such increase of annual rent under the circumstances would be reasonable, that they have no objection and consider themselves justified in consenting to the payment of such increase of annual rent, payable to each of the children of the said late J. H. Wilson, and whereas it is expedient to grant their prayer ;

Therefore, His Majesty, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and of the Legislative Assembly of Quebec, enacts as follows :

1. The said testamentary executors of the said late J. H. Wilson are authorized to increase by four hundred dollars per annum, from the first of January last—provided that the revenues of the succession, after payment of all expenses of administration are sufficient to make such payment—the annual rent payable to the children of the said late J. H. Wilson, until the partition of his property, under the terms of his said will, made before N. Pérodeau and colleague, notaries, on the twenty-fifth of January, 1900. Executors of J. H. Wilson authorized to increase certain allowance.

2. This act shall come into force one day of its sanction. Coming into force.
