CHAP. 91

An Act to incorporate the Church of the Messiah (Unitarian), Montreal, and to ratify a certain deed of sale and transfer made by said church

[Assented to 9th March, 1906]

WHEREAS the congregation of the church of the Messiah (Unitarian), Montreal, has, by its petition signed by Edward Archibald, of the city of Montreal, merchant, J. S. N. Dougall, of the city of Montreal, merchant, and James Morgan, of the city of Montreal, merchant, represented that, by an act passed by the late Province of Canada, 8 Victoria, chapter 35, the said congregation, then denominated "Christian Unitarians," was, among other things, empowered to take a conveyance of the lot of land situated at the place called Beaver Hall, and to hold the same for the uses of the said congregation by the trustees to be appointed under the said act and their successors in office; Preamble.

Whereas the said congregation have since that time held, used and occupied the said property by trustees as therein provided;

Whereas the said congregation are desirous of selling and disposing of the said property, and have, in fact, sold and disposed of the said property to Caroline Rose Foote, wife of Robert Newton Smyth, carrying on business as S. B. Foote and Co., but, as in virtue of said before mentioned act, there are doubts as to the power of the said congregation and of the trustees by whom the said property is held as aforesaid, to sign a transfer, of the same, either by themselves or by the said trustees, and are, moreover, desirous of obtaining incorporation with all the powers usually granted to incorporated bodies in the Province of Quebec;
