CHAP. 105

An Act to incorporate the Provincial Mutual Billiards and Bowling Alleys Association

[Assented to 9th March, 1906]

Preamble.

WHEREAS E. L. Ethier, Ed. Girard, Edouard Beauchamp, Arthur Marcotte, Napoléon Labelle, Stanislas Bombardier and a great many others, all proprietors of billiard rooms or bowling alleys in the Province of Quebec, have, by petition, prayed to be incorporated under the name of the Provincial Mutual Billiards and Bowling Alleys Association, and vested with certain powers hereinafter mentioned and it is expedient to grant their petition;

Therefore, His Majesty, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and of the Legislative Assembly of Quebec, enacts as follows:

Persons incorporated.
Name.

1. The persons aforesaid and others, who now are or may hereafter become members, are constituted a body politic and corporate under the name of "the Provincial Mutual Billiards and Bowling Alleys Association."

Objects of association.

2. The object of the association is to unite all the members thereof into an association for the protection of their rights as license-holders; to assure the respectability of the members of the association; to assist the authorities in the suppression of unlicensed houses; to assist the authorities in having the license law respected, and to secure certain benefits for the families of deceased members.

Existing by-laws, &c.

3. The rules and by-laws now in force respecting the admission and expulsion of members and the general administration of the affairs of the association, in so far as they are not inconsistent with the laws of the Province, shall be the rules and by-laws of the corporation, provided always that the corporation may, from time to time, amend and repeal and alter such rules and by-laws, wholly or in part, in the manner prescribed in the rules and by-laws then in force.

4. The affairs of the corporation shall be managed by a president, a vice-president, a secretary-treasurer and a board of management consisting of four members elected annually at the general meeting held on the second Tuesday of November in every year, according to the rules and by-laws of the said association, and they together shall constitute a board of management, and shall remain in office until the following annual election. All vacancies arising in the board of management by death or otherwise shall be filled by the said board of management according to the rules and by-laws of the said association.

Board of management.
Election of members thereof.
Vacancies in board.

5. E. L. Ethier, Napoléon Labelle, E. Girard, Art. Marcotte, S. Bombardier, N. Carrière and M. Lahaise shall constitute the board of management until others are elected in their stead under the provisions of this act.

Provisional board.

6. The corporation may, from time to time and at any time, acquire and hold moveable and immoveable property, provided the value of the said immoveables shall not exceed one hundred thousand dollars, and may sell or hypothecate the same whenever it may be deemed expedient and may acquire others in lieu thereof.

Power to hold, &c., property.

7. No member or officer shall be in any manner liable for any debt beyond the amount of his unpaid subscription; and any member of the association who is not indebted for arrears may withdraw therefrom and cease to be a member, by giving notice to that effect in the manner prescribed by the rules and by-laws of the association, and thereupon he shall be completely free from all liability by reason of any debt or obligation of the association; and every member who is expelled or who shall withdraw from the association or whose name is struck from the list of members for any of the reasons mentioned in the rules or by-laws shall forfeit all the rights he enjoyed as a member of the association.

Members not personally liable for debts.
Withdrawal of members, &c.

8. This act shall come into force on the day of its sanction.
