

CHAP. 16

An Act to amend the Mining Law

[Assented to 2nd June, 1904]

HIS MAJESTY, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and of the Legislative Assembly of Quebec, enacts as follows:

1. Articles 1448 and 1449 of the Revised Statutes, as R. S., 1448 enacted by the act 55-56 Victoria, chapter 20, section 1, are <sup>and 1449</sup> replaced as follows:

"1448. The holders of licenses to cut timber have, under such licenses, the privilege of cutting on all mining concessions granted within their limits, timber of all kinds according to law and the regulations governing woods and forests. Right of licensees to cut timber upon mining concessions within their limits.

This privilege expires after three years from the date of the issue of the letters-patent for such mining concessions. Duration of privilege.

"1449. Timber of all kinds is reserved by law, in favor of the Crown, upon lands sold as mining lands in a territory which is not under license to cut timber. Reservation of timber upon mining lands.

Timber licenses may be granted according to the law governing woods and forests, for the timber so reserved in favor of the Crown, upon such mining lands. Licenses to cut timber thereon.

The holder of the timber license has a right to make and maintain across such mining lands all roads necessary for his operations. Roads across mining lands.

The right to cut timber under a license, upon the mining lands mentioned in this article, expires after three years from the date of the first license to cut timber issued for such mining concessions. Duration of right to cut timber upon mining lands.

2. This act shall come into force on the day of its sanction. Coming into force.
