Withdrawal of members, &c.

struck off the list of members for any reasons mentioned in the by-laws of the club, shall ipso facto forfeit all rights of membership.

10. The corporation shall have power to appoint such committees, officers, administrators and servants as may be required for the due management of its affairs, and to allow them, respectively, a reasonable and suitable remuneration.

Appointment
of committees, &c.

11. All the officers so appointed may exercise such powers and authority, for the due management and administration of the affairs of the corporation, as may be required of them by the by-laws, rules and regulations of the corporation.

Power of officers, &c.

12. Hugh A. Allan, George M. Bosworth, J. Godfrey Bird, Peers Davidson, Geo. B. Fraser, A. J. Hodgson, J. W. Loud, R. W. MacDougall, Colin McCuaig, John McKergow and Hugh Paton shall be the first or provisional committee of the corporation, with power to call general meetings of its members, and to perform such other matters and things as in their discretion may be considered necessary for the organization of the corporation. They shall retain office until their successors are appointed under the by-laws of the corporation.

Provisional committee
their powers
and term of office.

13. The revenues and profits arising out of every description of moveable and immovable property belonging to the corporation, and all moneys borrowed on the security thereof, or obtained by an issue of stock or otherwise, shall be appropriated and employed to the exclusive use of the corporation, and the construction, repairing and furnishing of buildings and apartments required for the purposes of the corporation.

Application of funds of corporation.

14. The corporation shall have power to draw, make, accept and endorse bills of exchange and promissory notes, under the hands of its officers or others as may be determined by its committee.

Power to make, &c.,
promissory
notes, &c.

15. The corporation may borrow money, and, as security therefor, when duly authorized by a resolution of two-thirds of the members present at a meeting specially convened for the purpose, may issue bonds or debentures to the amount of seventy-five per cent. of the total value of its immovable property, containing such terms and conditions as the resolution may determine. Such bonds and debentures, after their registration in the office or offices of the registration division or divisions in which the immoveables of the corporation are situated (which must be described in a notice to that effect given to the registrar), constitute a privileged claim in favor of the holders thereof against the corporation, and give a right of preference thereto over debts and claims against the corporation, posterior to the issuing of such debentures.

Power to issue
stock, &c.

16. The corporation may, when authorized by a resolution adopted by a majority of its members present at a meeting specially convened for the purpose, issue stock to such extent as may be deemed necessary, not exceeding in the aggregate the sum of one hundred thousand dollars, in shares of one hundred dollars each ; and the corporation may, by one or more resolutions, authorize the issue of said stock in instalments from time to time, as may be deemed advisable.

How entered and paid for.

17. The stock as issued shall be subscribed for in a book to be opened for that purpose by the committee of the club, and shall be paid for in such manner, within such delays, and upon such notice as may be determined by a resolution of the committee.

paid up
shares.

18. The paid-up shares of such stock shall be transferable by assignments on the books of the corporation, subject, however, to the conditions and restrictions imposed by the committee, by resolution.

Dividends on shares.

19. Each holder of such stock shall be entitled to receive such annual dividend, not exceeding six per cent. per annum, on the amount of stock held by him, as the committee may determine, by resolution, from time to time ; and the committee may in its discretion, from year to year, determine that no dividend shall be paid upon such stock.

Power to issue
redeemable shares, &c.

20. The corporation may in like manner issue such stock on the condition that it may be redeemed and paid-up, from time to time, as may be judged desirable, the share or shares so to be redeemed or paid-up to be cancelled by the committee by drawing lots.

How shares
to be redeemed.

21. Such payment to redeem the stock may be made by depositing in any of the chartered banks in the city of Montreal, to the credit of the holder of such shares according to the books of the corporation, the amount of such shares and all dividends unpaid thereon ; and, upon notice of such deposit being addressed by registered letter to such holder at his inscribed address at the club, such shares shall ipso facto cease to exist.

22. The corporation may, upon resolution adopted by two-thirds of its members present at a special meeting convened for such purpose, issue such stock with the condition that the said stock, after due registration in the office or offices of the registration division or divisions in which the immovables of the corporation are situated (which must be described in the notice to that effect given to the registrar), shall constitute, with all dividends to accrue thereon, a privileged claim in favor of the holders thereof, against the corporation, and give a right of preference thereto over debts and claims against the said corporation posterior to the issuing of such stock; which privilege, however, may be waived by unanimous consent of the holders of such stock, in favor of any subsequent bond issue, as hereinabove authorized. The committee may likewise exercise the power herein given, in reference to any stock previously issued.

Stock may be declared to be mortgage on company's property.

23. This act shall come into force on the day of its sanction.

Coming into force.
