“ 2401. The proceedings in appeal from a judgment by default or ex-parte in vacation recorded by the clerk shall be as provided in the preceding article, except that the first day on which the case in appeal may be heard shall be the first juridical day in term next after the first day of June next after the delay allowed for filing an opposition to such judgment.

Review of judgments.

“ 2401a. Proceedings in review may be taken from the judgment of the said court to the Superior Court, sitting in review at Quebec, in every case in which proceedings in review could be taken to the said court if such judgment had been rendered in the Superior Court or in the Circuit Court at any other place.

Provisions applicable.

2. All the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure governing review shall apply to the proceedings in review under this article, except that the delay for the production and service of the inscription shall be sixty days.”

CHAP. 27

An Act respecting the judges of the sessions of the peace

[Assented to 25th April, 1903]

Preamble.

WHEREAS each of the persons exercising the functions of judge of the sessions of the peace is now in receipt of a salary of three thousand dollars as such, and a further salary of one thousand dollars as license commissioner ;

Whereas it is expedient to combine the two salaries, on condition that the said judges of the sessions shall perform their duties as judges of the sessions and license commissioners, as well as all other duties which are now or may hereafter be imposed upon them by any law of this province ;

Therefore, His Majesty, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and of the Legislative Assembly of Quebec, enacts as follows :

1. The following article is inserted in the Revised Statutes after article 2485 :

“2485a. The annual salary of each judge of the sessions of the peace, ordinarily performing the duties of such office, shall be four thousand dollars, to be paid out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund of the Province; and each of these judges shall be bound to perform the duties of judge of the sessions and license commissioner, as well as all other duties which are now or may hereafter be imposed upon him by any law of this province.”

Art. added after R. S., 2485.
