Purposes of corporation.

8. The corporation may devote itself to such occupations as may be calculated to aid it in maintaining itself and carrying on the various works connected with its constitution, such as the care of the aged poor and infirm of both sexes, orphan asylums, schools of house-keeping, the care of idiots and insane of both sexes, and the receiving ladies or lay boarders who wish to live in their establishment.

Cemetery.

9. The corporation may have its cemetery on its property for the mortal remains of its members and patients, provided it complies with the laws, provisions and regulations enacted by civil authority.

Return to Lieutenant-Governor.

10. The corporation shall be bound, whenever required, to make to the Lieutenant-Governor such report as he may exact.

Coming into force.

11. This act shall come into force on the day of its sanction.

CHAP. 119

An Act to incorporate the Murray Bay Convalescent Home

[Assented to 25th April, 1903]

Preamble.

WHEREAS the persons hereinafter mentioned have, by petition, represented that they and others for some years past, have maintained by voluntary contributions a certain institution at Pointe au Pic, Province of Quebec, known as the Murray Bay Convalescent Home, for the purpose of furnishing a home for convalescents, and have prayed that, for the better attainment of the objects of the said institution, the same may be vested with corporate powers; and whereas it is expedient to grant their prayer;

Therefore, His Majesty, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and of the Legislative Assembly of Quebec, enacts as follows:

Persons incorporated.
