An Act respecting the estates of Jacques Blanchard and Sarah Déry

[Assented to 25th April, 1903]

WHEREAS Elzéar Antoine Déry, recorder of the city of Quebec, in his quality of tutor to the minor children of the late Eugène Blanchard ; Arthur Déry, bookseller ; Eric Dorion, in his quality of tutor to his minor children born of his marriage with the late Dame Alice Déry ; Mathilde Déry, wife separated as to property of Charles Deguise, all of Quebec, and Sarah Déry, wife separated as to property of Adélaré Lanctot, of the village of Laprairie, have, by their petition, represented :

That Jacques Blanchard of Quebec, their grandfather, left on his death an immoveable situated in St. Peter's ward, Quebec, which immoveable forms part of the place of business or hotel now and for a long time known as Blanchard's Hotel ;

That the said immoveable at present belongs by succession for one undivided half to the heirs Déry, for the other undivided half to Juliette, Amédée and Henri Blanchard, minor children of the late Eugène Blanchard, represented by their duly appointed tutor Elzéar Antoine Déry ;

That the said heirs Dery, above mentioned, are also owners through their mother, Sarah Blanchard, wife of the late Isidore Pierre Déry, of an immoveable contiguous to and forming part of Blanchard's Hotel, and that these two properties together constitute the building known as Blanchard's Hotel ;
