WHEREAS Joseph Fortunat Belleau, bachelor of medicine, of the parish of Ancienne Lorette has, by petition, represented :

That he followed a classical course at the Quebec Seminary as far as rhetoric, inclusively ;

That he entered Laval University in Quebec in 1899, and followed all the lectures of that institution, and, in 1901, obtained a diploma of bachelor of medicine, after passing the examination required by law ;

That his medical studies will be completed in June, 1904, and, without special authorization from this Legislature, he will be prevented from practising his profession and thereby unjustly deprived of the benefit of several years' medical study ;

Whereas he has prayed for the passing of an act to regularize his position, and it is expedient to grant his prayer ;
