An Act to authorize the Bar of the Province of Quebec to admit Leopold Houle amongst its members, after examination

[Assented to 28th March, 1901]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Leopold Houle, student-at-law, of the town of Nicolet, has, by his petition, represented :

That he followed a complete course of study at Nicolet seminary and with Professors Leblond and Bonin in Montreal ;

That he was admitted to study law in January, 1895, on presentation of his diploma in letters, and that his certificate of admission was not registered then owing to his not paying the necessary fee for registration ;

That, owing to circumstances beyond his control, he has been unable to present himself for his final examination ;

That, at the time of his admission in 1895, he was indentured to Mr. E. L. Desaulniers and afterwards to Mr. L. Conrad Pelletier, Q. C., of the firm of Pelletier and Letourneau, advocates, of the Montreal Bar ;

That at the same time the petitioner assiduously attended law lectures of Laval University, Montreal, for three years ;

That he has successfully passed all the term examinations of the said University ;

That he has obtained, from the council of the Bar of the section of Three Rivers, a recommendation for the passing of an act authorizing the Bar of the Province of Quebec to admit him amongst its members, after examination :

Whereas the petitioner has prayed for the passing of an act to the above effect, and it is expedient to grant such prayer ;

Therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislature of Quebec, enacts as follows :

Admission of
L. Houle to Bar.

1. The Bar of the Province of Quebec is authorized to allow Leopold Houle to present himself for final examination for admission to the practice of law and, after such examination, to admit him amongst the members of the Bar of this Province.

Coming into force.

2. This act shall come into force on the day of its sanction.
