An Act to authorize the College of Physicians and Surgeons of the Province of Quebec to admit Moïse Véronneau to the practice of Medicine and Surgery, after examination.

[Assented to 28th March, 1901]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Moïse Véronneau, medical student, of the parish of St. Jean Baptiste de Rouville, district of St. Hyacinthe, has, by his petition, represented :

That he studied for six years in a classical college and successfully passed his examinations for the degree of bachelor of letters ;

That, for special reasons beyond his control, he was unable to present himself for examination for admission to the study of medicine ;

That he is in the third year of his medical studies, and owing to his not having a certificate, the college of Physicians and Surgeons of the Province of Quebec cannot, according to law, grant him a license authorizing him to practise that profession in this Province after he has passed his final examinations.

That it is necessary that the College of Physicians and Surgeons of the Province of Quebec be authorized to grant him the necessary license for practising his profession in the Province of Quebec, after examination ;

Therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislature of Quebec, enacts as follows :

Admission of
M. Véronneau
as physician and surgeon.

1. The College of Physicians and Surgeons of the Province of Quebec is authorized to admit the said Moïse Véronneau and to grant him the necessary license for practising medicine, surgery, and obstetrics in this Province, after examination, and after he has completed his medical course at the University.

Coming into force.

2. This act shall come into force on the day of its sanction.
