5. All property owned by or held in trust for the association, is hereby vested in the corporation, and shall be applied solely to the purposes of the corporation; and all debts, claims for subscriptions or contributions of members, or other rights accruing to the association, under its constitution, rules and by-laws, shall be vested in the corporation, and the corporation shall assume the liabilities and obligations of the association.

Members not personally liable for debts of corporation.

6. No member of the corporation shall be liable for any of the debts of the association, beyond a sum equal to the amount of the original entrance fee, and the respective share of every member in the amount of the subsequent contributions or divisions, which might hereafter be levied or allotted between all the members, in equal shares, and which might remain unpaid by such member.

Withdrawal of members after notice, &c.

7. Any member of the corporation, not being in arrears, may retire therefrom, and shall cease to be such member, on giving notice to that effect, in such form as may be required by the constitution, rules and by-laws, and thereafter shall be wholly free from liability for any debt or engagement thereof.

Forfeiture of rights of membership.

8. Every member, expelled or voluntarily retiring from the corporation, or whose name shall be struck off the list of members, for any of the reasons mentioned in the constitution, rules and by-laws, shall forfeit the rights of membership.

9. The rents, revenues and profits, arising out of every description of moveable or immoveable property belonging to the corporation, shall be appropriated for and employed in the exclusive use of the corporation, the construction and repair of the buildings required for the purposes of the corporation, and the payment of expenses legitimately incurred in carrying out any of the objects relating to the aforesaid purposes.

Application of revenues, &c.

10. This act shall come into force on the day of its sanction.

Coming into force.
