CAP. XCIV.

An Act to amend the act incorporating Les Sœurs des Petites Ecoles de Rimouski.

[Assented to 12th January, 1895.]

WHEREAS the corporation of Les Sœurs des Petites Ecoles de Rimouski has, by petition, prayed that its name be changed to that of La Corporation des Sœurs de Notre-Dame du St. Rosaire, and that its powers be extended, and it is expedient to grant such prayer; Preamble.

Therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislature of Quebec, enacts as follows:

Name
changed.

1. The name of the corporation of Les Sœurs des Petites Ecoles de Rimouski, in the town of St. Germain de Rimouski, in the district of Rimouski, a body politic and corporate, incorporated by the act 43-44 Victoria, chapter 75, is changed to that of La Corporation des Sœurs de Notre-Dame du St. Rosaire.

Deeds, &c., to corporation
under old
name.

2. The corporation, under its new name, shall not be deemed a new corporation, but all deeds, titles, documents and proceedings in which the old name of the community occurs shall be interpreted as if made under the new name.

Powers of corporation and head office.

3. Under such new name the corporation, whose corporate seat is in the town of St. Germain de Rimouski, shall have perpetual succession; may have a common seal, which it may alter at will; appear before the courts in the same manner as any person; borrow money, sign bills of exchange and promissory notes; possess, accept and acquire, for the maintenance, use and purposes of the corporation, instituted for the training and education of children in the parish schools of towns and country parts, by any legal title, moveable and immoveable property, which it may sell, alienate, hypothecate, assign, lease, transfer, exchange or otherwise dispose of, by any title whatsoever; provided, always, that the annual revenue of the immoveables possessed by the corporation for the purposes of revenue, shall not exceed thirty thousand dollars.

Rules for government of corporation.

4. The corporation shall be governed according to the rules of the community, and it may, with the approval of its ecclesiastical superiors, adopt or pass rules and regulations, which it may afterwards modify or repeal, respecting the administration of its property, the direction and government of its houses or establishments, the election, number and powers of its officers, the attributions of its members, their admission and withdrawal, and generally adopt or pass all regulations relating to the purposes of the said corporation, not inconsistent with the law.

Establishment of branches, &c.

5. The corporation may found branches in any place in this Province, and erect buildings suitable for its purposes, appoint procurators or administrators from amongst its members and define their powers.

What works corporation
may carry on.

6. The corporation may, with the consent of the ecclesiastical authorities and in accordance with the rules of its community, carry on all the various works contemplated by its constitution, such as the teaching of the catechism, the establishment of day schools and schools (free or otherwise), in which children shall be prepared for the primary course, or shall follow an elementary, model or academic course, the direction of work rooms, agricultural schools, schools of house-keeping and industrial schools, and also boarding schools.

7. Every document bearing the signature of the Superioress-General and of her secretary, with the authorization of the general councillors, shall be considered as binding upon the corporation ; but every document from branch establishments civilly incorporated shall further bear the signature of the local superioress.

What documents are binding upon corporation.

8. The corporation may have a cemetery on the property on which the corporate seat is established, for interring the mortal remains of its members, by complying with the ecclesiastical and civil laws, prescriptions and regulations enacted in that respect.

Cemetery for burial of members.

9. The corporation shall, when required by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, submit to each of the three branches of the Legislature, a detailed statement of the real estate it holds under this act.

Return to Legislature.

10. This act shall come into force on the day of its sanction.

Coming into force.
