CAP. XXXVII.

An Act to amend the law respecting registrars and the organization of registry offices.

[Assented to 27th February, 1893.]

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislature of Quebec, enacts as follows:

1. The following subsection and articles are inserted in the Revised Statutes before the first subsection of section fifteenth of chapter first of the first part of title twelfth of the Revised Statutes: Articles added after R. S., art. 5650.

§a1.—Provisions respecting certain registration divisions.

"5650a. From and after the first July, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three, the registrars of the Registrars of certain registration divisions sions to account for fees, &c., received, registration divisions, hereinafter mentioned, shall render an account to the Provincial Treasurer of the fees and emoluments of office collected by them, in the performance of their duties, under any title whatsoever, and pay the same into his hands, after deducting the disbursements approved and the contingencies authorized by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, and they shall receive an annual salary, in lieu of the said fees and emoluments of office.

And to receive a salary.

Registrars to be revenue officers.

"5650b. Every such registrar is deemed to be a revenue officer within the meaning of article 744.

Divisions coming under this subsection.

"5650c. The registration divisions coming under the provisions of this subsection are the following, and for the purposes thereof, they are divided into two classes.

First class.

The first class comprises the following registration divisions: Hochelaga and Jacques-Cartier, Montreal East, and Montreal West.

Second class.

The second class comprises the registration division of Quebec.

Such registrars to be assigned to classes before 1st July, 1893.

"5650d. Before the first of July, eighteen hundred and ninety-three, the Lieutenant-Governor in Council shall assign each registrar, now in office, in one of the registration divisions mentioned in article 5650c, to the class to which he shall belong; and from that date such registrar shall, subject to the provisions hereinafter set forth, receive the salary specified in schedule D.

Appointment of registrars to contain assignment to class. Salary how fixed.

"5650e. Every Order in Council, appointing a person to the office of registrar in a division mentioned in article 5650c, shall assign such person to one of the two classes; and the salary of such registrar shall be fixed, according to the class assigned to him, in accordance with the preceding article.

In certain event, other registration divisions to be under this subsection.

"5650f. Whenever it is established that the average gross revenue of any registration division, other than those mentioned in article 5650c, has, for three consecutive years, exceeded the figure of two thousand two hundred dollars, such registration division shall come under the provisions of this subsection, and the salary of the registrar of such registration division shall be then regulated in accordance with article 5650d.

Increase of registrar's salary in certain event, &c., how fixed.

"5650g. Whenever it is established that the average gross revenue of any registration division mentioned in article 5650c has, for three consecutive years, increased in the proportion of at least fifteen per cent, the salary of the registrar of such registration division, may, by Order in Council, be increased to the figures mentioned in schedule E.

" 5650h. Whenever it is established that the average gross revenue of any one of the first three registration divisions mentioned in article 5650c has not, for three consecutive years, reached the figure given opposite the name of such class in schedule F, such registration division shall fall into the class which immediately follows it, and the salary of the registrar of such registration division shall be that fixed by schedule D for such class.

Decrease of registrar's salary in certain event, &c., how fixed.

" 5650i. It shall be lawful for the Lieutenant-Governor in Council to fix a certain amount to be paid to each registrar of a registration division, coming within the provisions of this subsection, for the salaries of his deputy and other necessary employees; but such amount shall be paid only after duly signed vouchers have been filed in the hands of the Provincial Treasurer, and cannot, in any case, exceed, for each class of the registration divisions above mentioned, the sum of two thousand five hundred dollars;

The sum so allowed to such registrar, for the above-mentioned purposes, may be taken by him and paid out of the revenues of his office.

Allowance for deputy's salary and for those of other employees.

2. Article 1167 of the said Statutes is amended by adding the following paragraph :

R. S., art. 1167, amended.

" 3. To all fees or emoluments of office payable or which may become payable to any registrar of a registration division coming within the provisions of article 5650a for the various services or duties to be performed by them."

To certain fees, &c., of certain registrars.

3. Article 1180 of the said Statutes is amended by adding the following clause :

R. S., art. 1180, amended.

"The report required by the preceding clause is not required from registrars who are governed by article 5650a."

Not required from certain registrars.

4. Article 5680 of the said Statutes is amended by adding thereto the following clause :

R. S., art. 5680, amended.

" When it concerns a registration division coming within the provisions of article 5650a, the Provincial Secretary is further obliged to provide each registrar with a cash book, and also all such books as may be thereafter required."

Cash and other books to be supplied to certain registrars.

5. Articles 1216, 5705, 5706, 5707 of the said Statutes do not apply to the registration divisions coming within the provisions of article 5650a.

Certain articles not to apply to certain registrars.
