An Act to authorize James Ernest Thayer to add to his name that of Ross.

Assented to 27th February, 1893.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS James Ernest Thayer, of the city and district of Montreal, commercial traveller, has represented by his petition :

That for upwards of twenty-one years and prior to the first day of January last, to wit : when the petitioner was about four years of age, one J. B. Ross, of the said city of Montreal, secretary, did adopt the said petitioner as his son ;

That, from the date of such adoption down to the present time, said petitioner has assumed and called himself by the name of Ross, being the name of his said adopted father, and has, during all such time, been known to and called by others by the said name of Ross ;

That by reason of the premises, said petitioner is desirous to add to his name that of Ross ;

Whereas it is expedient to accede to the said petition ;

Therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislature of Quebec, enacts as follows :

J. E. Thayer
may add Ross to his name.

1. The said James Ernest Thayer is authorized to add to his name that of Ross, and in future to bear the name of James Ernest Thayer-Ross.

Civil rights that may be exercised under such name.

2. Under the said name of James Ernest Thayer-Ross, the said James Ernest Thayer shall be authorized to exercise all civil rights, and more particularly :

1. To claim, exercise and possess all rights, benefits, titles and privileges which he would be entitled to claim, exercise and possess, independently of the change of name hereby authorized ;

2. To receive, recover and possess all gifts, legacies and advantages contained in any will and testament made in his favour, under the name of James Ernest Thayer ;

3. To possess and recover all property, moveable and immoveable, as well as all rights whatsoever, which belong to him, or which he may claim ;

4. To inherit all property, moveable and immoveable, and all rights whatsoever.

3. All rights and privileges conferred by this act on the said James Ernest Thayer-Ross shall avail to his children and descendants. Rights, &c., avail to children, &c.

4. This act shall come into force on the day of its sanction. Coming into force.

An Act to authorize the Pharmaceutical Association of the Province of Quebec to grant to Dame Léa Addée Drolet, wife of Odilon Jean Dion, a certificate of licentiate of pharmacy.

[Assented to 27th February, 1893.]

WHEREAS, by her marriage contract in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, Dame Léa Addée Drolet acquired the ownership of the drug store, then kept by her husband, Odilon Jean Dion ; Preamble.

Whereas, under the act 38 Victoria, chapter 37, every person doing business as chemist and druggist, before the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, was entitled to be inscribed upon the register and to obtain a certificate of licentiate of pharmacy, and by the act 48 Victoria, chapter 36, this was limited to persons who should apply within twelve months ;

Whereas the said Dame Léa Addée Drolet was entitled, under the said act, to obtain her certificate of licentiate of pharmacy ; but she has allowed the delay fixed by law for applying for inscription to expire without making such application, and suffers from such omission ; and whereas, moreover, the said Dame Léa Addée Drolet is represented to possess the professional knowledge and capacity required of licentiates of pharmacy, and it is expedient to grant her prayer for the passing of an act authorizing the Pharmaceutical Association of the Province of Quebec to grant her a certificate of licentiate ; which prayer is authorized by the council of the said association ;

Therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislature of Quebec, enacts as follows :
