C A P. X X X V I I .

An Act for the relief of persons who have sustained losses through the storms of the month of June, 1892.

[Assented to 24th June, 1892.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to come to the relief of those persons who have sustained losses through the heavy storms of wind and rain which prevailed throughout this Province during the course of the month of June, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two ;

Therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislature of Quebec, enacts as follows :

Agricultural societies may devote revenue for 1892 to relief of certain persons.

Programme laid down need not be complied with.

1. It shall be lawful for any agricultural society to devote the whole of its revenue for the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, to the relief of those persons who suffered from the storms of wind and rain which prevailed throughout the Province during the course of the month of June this year, and such society shall not be bound to conform to the programme laid down by the Council of Agriculture for the said year.

Coming into force.

2. This act shall come into force on the day of its sanction.
