C A P. X C I V.

An Act to incorporate "L'Hotel-Dieu du Sacré-Cœur de Jésus de Québec."

[Assented to 24th June, 1892.]

WHEREAS there exists at Quebec a charitable institution under the name of "L'Hotel-Dieu du Sacré-Cœur de Jésus à Québec," whose object is to receive and succor the poor, the sick, the aged and the infirm, as well as orphans and deserted children and foundlings, without distinction of nationality or religion ; and whereas the undermentioned managers of the said Hôtel-Dieu have, by their petition, prayed for the incorporation of the said institution, and by reason of the great advantages which will follow such incorporation, it is expedient to grant their prayer ;

Preamble.

Therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislature of Quebec, enacts as follows :

1. Mesdames Marie Joséphine Fortin, known as Sœur St. Louis, Marie Elmiere Turcotte, known as Sœur Marie du Calvaire, Marie Emérise Marceau, known as Sœur Ste. Thérèse de Jésus, Marie Alberine Couture, known as Sœur Ste. Anne and Marie Joséphine Thomas dit Bigaouette, known as Sœur St. Jean Baptiste, all now members of the said institution, shall be and are hereby constituted a body politic and corporate, under the name of "L'Hotel-Dieu du Sacré-Cœur de Jésus de Québec."

Certain persons incorporated.

Name.

2. Under such name, the corporation shall have perpetual succession and a common seal, and may, for the ends and purposes of the corporation, and with the authorization of its ecclesiastical superiors, acquire, hold, possess, accept and receive all moveable and immoveable property which may hereafter be sold, ceded, given or bequeathed to the corporation for its use and for the purposes of the corporation; and the same may sell and lease and acquire others in lieu thereof for the same purposes.

Powers.

Certain property vested in corporation.

Proviso as to value.

All the property now in the possession of the said institution shall become and remain the property of the corporation hereby constituted, from the day of the sanction of the present act; provided, always, that the annual value of the said properties shall not exceed twenty thousand dollars, beyond the revenues of the buildings necessary for the said Hôtel-Dieu and the land upon which such buildings are or may be erected.

Application of revenues.

3. The rents, revenues and profits arising from all kinds of moveable and immoveable property, belonging to the corporation, shall be used exclusively for the purposes of the institution and for the payment of the expenses incurred for the objects above mentioned.

Power to pass by-laws for certain purposes.

4. The corporation may, from time to time, pass by-laws and rules (not contrary to the present act, nor to the laws of this Province) for the government of the corporation and of its officers and servants, and for the admission of persons to the said Hôtel-Dieu, and their dismissal when they shall think proper, and for placing under articles of apprenticeship, in service, or in any other healthy occupation or trade, the young people of either sex admitted to the said Hôtel-Dieu; and may exercise over them and with regard to them all the powers which their parents could themselves have exercised, had they been under their control. The said institution shall also have the right to admit female boarders, to instruct them in the art of managing a farm.

Powers over children.

Erection of the Hôtel-Dieu into separate parish of Sacré-Cœur de Jésus.

5. Whereas it is requisite that the said Hôtel-Dieu be entirely separated from the city of Quebec, and that it and its dependencies be erected into a parish; therefore, the said Hôtel-Dieu, its buildings, church, circumstances and dependencies, together with the limits and area comprising the territory on which the said Hôtel-Dieu is built and the lands depending thereon, measuring three arpents and three quarters in front, or thereabout, by ten arpents, or thereabout, in depth; bounded, in front, by St. Valier street; in rear, by the river St. Charles; on one side, towards the north-east, partly by a piece of land belonging to the city of Quebec, in virtue of a deed of sale passed at Quebec, before Mr. Joseph Savard, notary, on the twenty-eighth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and ninety, between "L'Hôpital du Sacré-Cœur de Jésus à Québec," and the city of Quebec, and now known under the name of "Avenue du Sacré-Cœur," and part by the land called St. Maloville, including the land by the said avenue from the road leading to the said Hôtel-Dieu to the river St. Charles, the said Hôtel-Dieu being substituted for the said "Hôpital du Sacré-Cœur" in all its rights and obligations resulting from the said deed of sale, and on the other side, to the south-west, by the heirs Langlois, or their representatives, and containing thirty-seven arpents and a half or thereabout in superficies, shall be and they are hereby detached entirely from the said city of Quebec and erected into a parish, under the name of "La Paroisse du Sacré-Cœur de Jésus," for all civil purposes, as amply and with the same effect as if the same had been erected by the commissioners empowered so to do under the laws in force in relation thereto.

6. If the Government of this Province should desire to place in the said Hôtel-Dieu, epileptics, idiots or other persons whose ailments necessitate it or whose confinement in an asylum is authorized by law, it may enter into such agreements with the said institution as it may think advisable for the purpose and to which the said institution may consent; provided that no payment be made unless the amounts required for the purpose be voted by the Legislature.

Government may agree with corporation for reception of epileptics, &c.
Proviso.

7. The said institution is authorized to keep a dispensary, where remedies and medicines may be manufactured, to follow trades and to sell to the public all objects and merchandize so made and manufactured by them, as well as to use them, themselves, in the said institution, subject however to the laws, rules and by-laws respecting these manufactures and trades in force in this Province, and in the cities, towns and other municipalities in this Province, in which such manufactories or trades are carried on; provided always, that all the profits and revenues arising, directly or indirectly, from these manufactures, trades and sales, shall be exclusively employed for the benefit and support of the corporation and the carrying out of its works of charity.

Dispensary.
Proviso.

8. It shall be the duty of the corporation, when thereunto required by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, to transmit to him and to each branch of the Legislature of this Province, a detailed statement of the property and estate, real and personal, in its possession.

Return to Legislature when required.

9. This act shall come into force on the day of its sanction.
