CAP. LXXIX.

An Act to incorporate the Town of Magog and for the better management of education within its limits.

[Assented to 2nd April, 1890.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS the provisions of the Municipal Code do not meet the present wants of the corporation of the village of Magog, and it has become necessary to make more ample provisions for the internal management of the said village, in respect to its municipal and educational interests ; and whereas the inhabitants of the said village are desirous that the same should be incorporated as a town and have a special act of incorporation, and application to that effect has been duly made ; Therefore Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislature of Quebec, enacts as follows :

PART I.

PROVISIONS RESPECTING THE TOWN OF MAGOG.

INCORPORATION OF THE TOWN.

1. The inhabitants of the village of Magog and their successors shall be and they are hereby declared to be a body corporate and politic, in fact and in law, under the name of the " Corporation of the Town of Magog " and separated from the county of Stanstead for all municipal and school purposes.

Inhabitants incorporated.

Name.

Separated from county of Stanstead.

Under that name, they and their successors shall have perpetual succession, and shall be capable of appearing in law, suing and being sued in all courts, and in all actions, causes and complaints whatsoever.

General powers.

They shall have a common seal, which they may change or modify at pleasure.

Seal.

They shall in law be capable of receiving by donation, acquiring, holding, transferring and alienating property, moveable and immoveable, for the uses of the said town ; becoming party to all contracts or agreements in the management of the affairs of the town, and giving and accepting all notes, drafts, bonds obligations, judgments or other instruments or securities for the payment of any sum of money, borrowed or loaned, or for the execution of any other duty, and generally all the other collective rights, which are necessary for the fulfilment of the duties imposed upon them.

Power to hold etc., moveable and immoveable property, etc.

2. The by-laws, orders, rolls and other municipal acts of the village of Magog as now constituted, and in force at the passing of this act, shall continue to be in force until they are amended or repealed by the council of the town presently incorporated.

By-laws, etc.,
of village to remain in force.

BOUNDARIES OF THE TOWN.—DIVISION INTO WARDS.

3. The boundaries of the town of Magog shall be the present boundaries of the village of Magog.

Boundaries of town.

4. The councillors of the town shall have power to divide the town into wards, to define the limits of each ward, and to change the same whenever it is considered in the interest of the town so to do.

Power to divide town into wards, etc.

Present councillors, etc., to remain in office.

Exception.

5. The councillors and officers of the town, in office at the passing of this act, shall remain in office until the expiration of their term, unless the council divides the town into wards: in such case an election shall be held on the second Monday in January next after such division, to replace all the councillors in office, and the newly elected councillors shall be elected for three years, excepting in first elections held after the coming into force of this act when articles 379 and 380, of the Municipal Code of the Province of Quebec shall apply.

Laws applicable to town.

6. The corporation of the town of Magog is subject to the provisions of the law governing town corporations, contained in chapter first of title XI (articles 4178 and following) of the Revised Statutes of the Province of Quebec, except in so far as this act may derogate therefrom or may contain provisions inconsistent therewith.

of person in his place.

Extraordinary tax may be levied for certain purposes.

83. Whenever it may become necessary to raise more money in any year than the ordinary revenue of the respective boards amounts to, for the purpose of meeting pressing demands upon such boards, an extraordinary tax may be levied for one year upon panel number one, or panel number two, as the revenue may be required for the Roman Catholic or Protestant board, and also upon panel number three, such amount as the board levying the assessment would be entitled to receive, had the tax been levied by the joint action of both boards.

How to be levied.

Such extraordinary tax shall be levied by the corporation of the town, in the same manner in which the ordinary tax is levied, upon petition to the council made by the board of commissioners seeking the additional revenue.

But such additional taxation shall only be levied with the approval and sanction of the Lieutenant-Governor in council, and shall affect the property of the panel whose board have asked for it and the proportion of the property in panel number 3 to which they are entitled under article 71.

An Act to incorporate the "French Veterinary School of Montreal."

[Assented to 2nd April, 1890.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Messrs. Victor Théodule Daubigny, veterinary surgeon; Emmanuel Persillier Lachapelle, doctor of medicine; Norbert Fafard, doctor of medicine; Hugues E. Desrosiers, doctor of medicine; Avila R. Marsolais, doctor of medicine; Victor François Daubigny, veterinary surgeon, all citizens of Montreal and members of the "French Veterinary School of Montreal," have, by petition, prayed that such school be incorporated;

Whereas the said school has been attended every year since its foundation by about thirty students and this year by over thirty-six regularly matriculated, who assiduously follow the lectures;

Whereas the Council of Agriculture has acknowledged the usefulness of this school, the most flourishing in this Province, and has given it its approval and patronage;

Whereas, in order the better to assure the future of this institution, it is expedient to endow it with the rights and privileges of a corporation;

Therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislature of Quebec, enacts as follows:

TITLE I.
