An Act to incorporate "The Woman's Christian Temperance Union of the Province of Quebec."

[Assented to 2nd April, 1890.]

Preamble. WHEREAS Mrs. Mary E. Sanderson, of Danville, Mrs. E. Middleton, of Coaticooke, Mrs. Leila Geggie, of Quebec, Miss J. E. Dougall, of Montreal, Mrs. Sophia Lindsay, of Waterloo, Mrs. Lucy Noyes, of Waterloo, Mrs.

Ellen G. Foster, of Knowlton, Miss Emma G. Barber, of Montreal, Miss Frances Bryson, of Montreal, and Mrs. R. W. McLachlan, of Montreal, have, by petition, set forth that they, with others, are members of an Association which has existed in the Province of Quebec during the last six years, under the name of "The Woman's Christian Temperance Union of the Province of Quebec," and have prayed for an act of incorporation under the said name; and whereas it is expedient to grant their prayer;

Therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislature of Quebec, enacts as follows:

1. The above mentioned persons, and others who are now, or who may hereafter become, members of the said union, are hereby constituted a body politic and corporate, under the name of "The Woman's Christian Temperance Union of the Province of Quebec."

Certain
persons incorporated.

2. The objects of the said union are:

To unitedly array the Christian Women of the Province of Quebec, against the manufacture, sale and use of intoxicating liquor as a beverage;

To educate and influence society in favour of sobriety and virtue;

To impress upon the youth of the Province the awful responsibility resting upon those either supporting or engaged in the liquor traffic, and the folly, as well as guilt, of partaking of intoxicants of any kind or in any form;

To gather statistics, facts and incidents relating to the traffic in intoxicating liquor, and make use of them in such a way as will best promote the interests of temperance;

To labour individually for the inebriate, the liquor seller, the fallen woman, and for the neglected masses in the cities and towns of the Province, hitherto unreached and uncared for;

To give active expression of sympathy with the family of the inebriate, and to endeavour to elevate his children from the debasing influence by which they are surrounded;

To heartily co-operate with the temperance societies, in combating the evils of intemperance, and to unite with any other society or association which is endeavouring justly, appropriately, and guided by Christian principles, to procure more advanced and stringent legislation on this subject;

To strive to secure the thorough enforcement of temperance laws of the Province;

To work for the suppression of evil and vice, the amelioration of the condition of the poor and needy, the rescue and reformation of the vicious and fallen, and more particularly the remedying of those evils and vices resulting from the traffic in, and the use of, intoxicating liquors, the amelioration of the poverty and need caused thereby, and the rescue and reformation of the vicious and fallen of the female sex.

Constitution and by-laws.

3. The constitution and by-laws of the union, now in force, shall be the constitution and by-laws of the corporation.

Head office.

4. The head office of the corporation shall be in the city of Montreal.

Power to acquire, etc.,
property.

5. The corporation may acquire, take, hold and possess, for its own use, moveable and immoveable property, and it may sell, alienate, hypothecate and dispose of the same, and acquire others instead thereof, provided the annual revenue therefrom does not exceed the sum of five thousand dollars.

Value
limited.

Certain
articles of R.
S. Q. to apply.

6. Articles 3096 to 3104 of the Revised Statutes of the Province of Quebec shall apply to the corporation, unless incompatible with this act.

Coming into force.

7. This act shall come into force on the day of its sanction.

CAP. XCVI.

An Act to incorporate the "Montreal Exposition Company."

[Assented to 2nd April, 1890.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS L. H. Massue and others, hereinafter named, have, by their petition, prayed that a company be incorporated for the purpose of promoting industries, arts and sciences generally, and of establishing and holding agricultural, industrial, art and other exhibitions at the city of Montreal or vicinity, and whereas it is expedient to grant the prayer of the said petition;

Therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislature of Quebec, enacts as follows:

TITLE FIRST.

INCORPORATION OF THE COMPANY.

Certain persons incorporated.

8. The Honorables James K. Ward and Louis Tourville, and Messrs. Louis Huet Massue, Raymond Préfontaine, Jos.
