

CAP. LXIII.

An act to incorporate “ L'Union St. Joseph de St. Henri. ”

[Assented to 12th July, 1888.]

WHEREAS Ferdinand Dagenais, Toussaint Aquin, Preamble.
Gilbert A. Messier, L. T. D. Papineau, Henri Hurlubise, Toussaint Poirier, Odilon David, A. C. Bissonnette, Octave Bourbonnais, Hildège Marsan, and other members of “ L'Union St. Joseph de St. Henri ” a benefit society already in existence in the town of St. Henri, have prayed to be incorporated under such name, for the purpose of securing pecuniary and other benefits for the sick members of such association and for the widows or children of deceased members; and whereas it is expedient to grant their prayer;

Therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislature of Quebec, enacts as follows:

1. The persons above mentioned and such others as Persons incorporated.
may become members of “ L'Union St. Joseph de St. Henri ” are under such name, constituted a corporation and, as such, may establish, in favour of the members thereof, a fund for mutual assistance and for such purpose, may acquire property both moveable and immoveable Name and powers.
by gratuitous or onerous title, alienate or hypothecate the same, and adopt all by-laws necessary for the management of the association, and also to make all by-laws concerning the admission and expulsion of members, the general and special contributions and the fines which it may impose.

2. The corporation may determine, as it deems proper, Powers as to allowances to members, &c.
the amount to be allowed to its sick members and adopt and repeal all by-laws respecting allowances to the widows or children of members who die intestate, and also to permit, under certain conditions and in certain cases, the members to transfer such property to whomsoever they may please, by will when they leave no widow or children.

3. The receiving of such amounts by the widow or Interpretation.
children of a member shall not be deemed an acceptance of his estate.

4. The fact of being a member of the corporation shall Members not personally liable.
not entail any personal responsibility towards third parties.

ry of nals.

5. The recovery of benefits, amounts, contributions and fines as well as the method and place of payment thereof shall be determined by by-law.

Evidence of members.

6. Every member of the corporation may be heard as a witness for or against it.

Coming into force.

7. This act shall come into force on the day of its sanction.

C A P. L X I V.

An Act to incorporate "The Sherbrooke Protestant Hospital."

[Assented to 12th July, 1888.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS the persons hereinafter named, and others, by their petition, have alleged and shown that a subscription has been set on foot to provide funds for the founding and erecting of an hospital in the city of Sherbrooke, to be known as "The Sherbrooke Protestant Hospital," and a parcel of land has been acquired for that purpose, and contributions and donations have already been subscribed, and that others may be expected in furtherance of said object; and whereas the said hereinafter named persons and others have prayed that they may be incorporated for the purposes of this act; Therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislature of Quebec, enacts as follows:

Persons incorporated.

1. Richard W. Heneker, Andrew Paton, Thomas J. Tuck, William Farwell, John McIntosh, James Davidson, George G. Bryant, William A. Morehouse, Israel Wood, all of the city of Sherbrooke, Esquires, and all such other persons who shall hereafter contribute to the institution hereby created, either by a donation respectively of at least five hundred dollars, or who shall sign the constitution and regularly continue to pay annually towards its support, not less than five dollars each, and their successors are hereby created a body politic and corporate at the city of Sherbrooke, in the Province of Quebec, under the name of "The Sherbrooke Protestant Hospital."

Name.

General powers.

2. The corporation shall have perpetual succession and may have a common seal, with power to change, alter, break, and renew the same as often as they think proper, and the corporation may, under the same name, contract and be contracted with, sue and be sued, implead and be impleaded, prosecute and be prosecuted in all courts and places whatever in this Province.