237. On or before the first day of December in each year, the secretary-treasurer of the town shall prepare, if he is ordered to do so by the council, a list of all the lands, town lots or parcels of lots or other immoveables in the town liable to taxation, upon which any assessments or other dues remain unpaid, and such list shall show :

1. The names and condition, as indicated on the valuation roll, of all persons indebted for municipal taxes or dues on real estate owned or occupied by such persons ;

2. The amount of school taxes due by each of these persons up to the time of the making out of such list, if a statement of such arrears has been presented in time at the office of the council by the secretary-treasurer of the school commissioners or trustees ;

3. A description of the real estate liable for municipal or school taxes ;

4. The total amount of such taxes affecting such real estate for municipal or school purposes ;

He shall cause to be inserted at least twice, once during the month of December and once during the month of January, in a French newspaper and in an English newspaper published in the district of Montreal, and in French and English in the "Quebec Official Gazette," a notice containing a list of all such immoveable property, respectively, upon which taxes or assessments remain due, showing opposite or after their numbers or designations the amounts to be levied for the discharge of these taxes or assessments or other dues, including all costs and expenses incurred up to the publication of the said notice, exclusively, and announcing that the immoveables will be sold on the first Monday of the month of February then next following, or on the following day if such first Monday be not a juridical day, at the place where the sittings of the council are then held, for the payment of the taxes or assessments or other dues, and he shall moreover give public notice of such sale on the two Sundays immediately preceding the day of the sale, specifying the place, day and hour at which such sale will commence.

238. All goods and chattels, to be sold under the authority of this act, for the payment of taxes or assessments or other dues, shall be offered at public auction ; but such goods or chattels so publicly sold, shall be exempt from auction duty, and need not be sold by a licensed auctioneer.

239. At the time appointed for the sale, the secretary-treasurer of the town of St. Jean-Baptiste, or some other person acting for him, shall sell to the highest bidder those of the lands described in the list upon which taxes are still due, after making known the amount to be levied on each of such lands, including therein a part of the costs incurred for the sale, proportionate to the amount of the debt.

26. Any person, offering then and there to pay the amount of the monies to be levied together with the costs, for the smallest portion of such lands, becomes the purchaser thereof, and such portion of the land must be at once adjudged to him by the secretary-treasurer, who sells such portion of the property as appears to him best in the interest of the debtor. Adjudication.

27. The purchaser of any land or portion of land must pay the amount of his purchase money immediately upon the adjudication thereof. Price to be paid at once.

In default of immediate payment the secretary-treasurer either at once puts up the land for sale or adjourns the sale to the following or any other day, not more than eight days distant, by giving all persons present notice of such adjournment in an audible and intelligible voice. Proceedings in default of immediate payment.

28. If, at the time of the sale no bid is made or if all the lands put up cannot be sold on the first Monday in February, the sale must be adjourned to the following or any other day within eight days, in the manner set forth in the last provision of the preceding section. Adjournment of sale in certain cases.

29. On payment by the purchaser, of the amount of his purchase money, the secretary-treasurer shall give a certificate under his signature to such purchaser specifying the particulars of such sale, and one certificate will suffice for the adjudication of several lots to the same person, and the purchaser is immediately seized of such lot or parcel of land and may forthwith enter upon and take possession thereof. The secretary-treasurer shall have a right to a fee of not more than one dollar and a half for the said certificate, as the council may order. Certificate from secretary-treasurer upon payment by purchaser. Fee therefor.

30. No such purchaser of any lot of land or part thereof shall deteriorate it in any way nor carry away the buildings or fences erected on such property or any part of it; and it shall be the duty of the former proprietor, before he can recover possession of his lot of land or part of it so sold, in addition to what he is bound to pay, to repay to the said purchaser all the taxes and the value of all public or vicinal work which he has paid or performed during the time the land was in his possession. Duties of the purchaser. Duty of former proprietor before he can retake possession.

Right of redemption.

31. If, within two years from the day of such sale, the original owner of the lot, or any one on his behalf pays to the secretary-treasurer the amount levied, together with, in addition, an indemnity of fifteen per cent. per annum, any fraction of a year being counted as a complete year, then he shall be entitled to recover possession of the lot of land so sold, and the secretary-treasurer shall, on demand, pay to the purchaser thereof, his heirs, assigns or representatives, the amount so received by him, after deducting therefrom two and a half per cent., as his own fees; and thereupon (subject to the condition contained in the next following section) the right acquired by the purchaser in the land shall thenceforth wholly cease and become void, and the purchaser may compel the owner, or the person who redeems the land in the name of the owner, to indemnify him for all necessary repairs and improvements made by him on the land so redeemed, unless he removes the same, and also to reimburse him the amount of the taxes paid, and of the public or municipal work performed on account of such land, with an indemnity on the whole at the rate of fifteen per cent. per annum, every fraction of a year being reckoned as a year. The purchaser may retain possession of the land redeemed until payment of such claim.

Duty of secretary-treasurer.

Effect of redemption.

Power of purchaser to retain possession until claim paid.

Redemption may be effected by any one in name of original proprietor and for him.

32. Any person may redeem any such lot or parcel of land so sold, whether thereto authorized or not by the original proprietor, but for and in the name of such proprietor only.

Name of person paying to be mentioned in receipt.

33. Whenever any such redemption is effected by a person not specially authorized, the secretary-treasurer shall mention, in the receipt given by him for the redemption money, the name and designation of the person paying the same.

Receipt to be in duplicate and to whom to be delivered.

34. Every such receipt shall be made in duplicate; one duplicate shall be delivered to the person paying the redemption money and the other shall remain of record in the office of the secretary-treasurer.

Value of receipt.

35. Every such receipt or a copy thereof, certified by the secretary-treasurer, shall be proof of the payment mentioned therein, and, when registered in the registry office of the county of Hochelaga, shall secure to the person therein mentioned, his heirs or assigns, a privilege and hypothec, ranking before all other claims upon the lot or parcel of land so sold, for the reimbursement of the sum therein mentioned, with interest to be reckoned from the date of such receipt, except claims for cens et rentes or rentes constituées representing cens et rentes as provided by the Seigniorial Act of 1854, and the acts amending the same.

36. If, at the expiration of two years from the time of such adjudication, the land so adjudged is not redeemed as aforesaid, then the secretary-treasurer, on demand by the purchaser, his heirs, assigns or representatives, and upon proof of the payment of the arrears of all other assessments which, in the meantime, have become due thereon, shall execute a deed of sale in due form, conveying, in the name of the mayor and town of St. Jean-Baptiste, the property so adjudged to such purchaser, his heirs and assigns.

Deed of sale to be given to purchaser if land not redeemed within two years.

37. Such deed of sale shall be a legal conveyance of the said land, and shall not only transfer to the purchaser all rights of property which the original holder had therein, but shall also relieve such land of all privileges and hypothecs due thereon, except the right to cens et rentes or rentes constituées representing cens et rentes as provided by the Seigniorial Act of 1854, and the acts amending the same.

Effect of such deed of sale.

38. The town of St. Jean-Baptiste shall not be responsible for irregularities which would annul the sales of lots of land within the limits of the town when these irregularities shall be the act of the school commissioners or trustees, their agents or servants; but the said school commissioners or trustees for the municipality of the town of St. Jean-Baptiste alone shall be answerable for the same.

Responsibility for irregularities in sales for school rates.

In actions taken against the town of St. Jean-Baptiste on account of such irregularities, the said town of St. Jean-Baptiste shall have a right to exercise its recourse in warranty against the said school commissioners or trustees by direct action or otherwise for the recovery of all damages, interest, indemnity or costs which the town is liable for, on account of such irregularity.

Recourse in warranty by town against school commissioners.

39. The secretary-treasurer of the town of St. Jean-Baptiste shall alone have the right in future to sell lots of land in the town of St. Jean-Baptiste for the recovery of municipal or school taxes and assessments as above mentioned.

Exclusive right of secretary treasurer to sell lands for arrears.

40. Whenever the secretary-treasurer of the said school commissioners or trustees shall transmit to the secretary-treasurer of the town of St. Jean-Baptiste a list or statement, showing the lots on which the school commissioners or trustees claim school taxes or assessments, or arrears, and the names of the proprietors of the said lots and other particulars required, with an order from the said school commissioners or trustees to advertise such lots for sale, for the collection of such taxes, assessments or arrears, the said secretary-treasurer of the town of St. Jean-Baptiste shall advertise them for sale and shall collect the said school taxes or assessments by the sale of the said lots of land in the manner above-mentioned for the collection of municipal taxes, whether he be ordered to do so by the council or not.

Prescription
of actions to annul sales for taxes, &c.
Same of actions of damages.

41. Every action to annul a sale, made in virtue of this act, for taxes or assessments by order of the mayor and council of the town of St. Jean Baptiste, or of the school commissioners or trustees for the municipality of the town of St. Jean Baptiste, shall be taken within the two years following the adjudication of the property sold; and no action to annul a sale made as aforesaid, or to recover damages either against the town of St. Jean Baptiste or the school commissioners or trustees, shall be maintained, unless it is taken within the two years of the said adjudication.

Extent and effect of such prescription.

42. The denial of such action enacted by the preceding section shall extend to any exception or plea whatever setting forth the nullity of every such sale or claiming damages and interest.

Privilege for debts due.

43. All debts, now due to the said town of St. Jean Baptiste for taxes and assessments, or which may be due in future for the same object, shall be privileged debts, and shall be paid in preference to all other debts, and shall, in all cases of distribution of monies, be allowed to the said town, in preference to all other creditors, and this privilege shall apply only to the taxes and assessments of the last three years, and shall have its full and entire effect without its being necessary to have recourse to registration.

Inspection of buildings.

44. The council may, by by-law, authorize any building inspectors and any other officers who shall be appointed by the said council for that purpose, to inspect and examine the interior or exterior of all buildings, constructions, and lots in the said town, in order to ascertain whether the same are in accordance with the law or the by-laws of the council and compel every proprietor or occupant of such houses or buildings to give free access to such inspectors or officers; and, further, to authorize such inspectors or officers to demolish any building, house, chimney, or walls which may be a source of danger to the citizens of the said town or oblige such buildings to be abandoned and destroyed at the expense of the proprietors, as the council may deem proper.

FINAL PROVISIONS.

45. The members of the council of the village of St. Jean Baptiste shall all go out of office in the month of January next, and, in the interval before such date, they shall constitute the council of the town of St. Jean Baptiste and exercise all the powers conferred upon the said town by this act. Provisional council.

In the event of the resignation or inability to exercise the office either of mayor or of councillor during the course of the present year, the said mayor or councillors shall be replaced in the manner provided by the Municipal Code of this Province. Resignation, &c., provided for.

46. All the by-laws, ordinances, agreements, provisions, undertakings and contracts and things passed and agreed to by the council of the village of St. Jean-Baptiste, and all valuation or collection rolls, whether general or special, made and homologated by the council of the village of St. Jean-Baptiste, shall continue to have full effect and remain in force, both for the past and the future, in the town of St. Jean-Baptiste, as if this act had not been passed, and the corporation of the town, as constituted by this act, shall succeed and be substituted, for all purposes whatsoever, to the obligations, rights, and claims of the corporation of the village of St. Jean-Baptiste. By-laws, &c., of village continued.

And, in order to avoid law-suits which might entail considerable costs upon the town of St. Jean-Baptiste, the town of St. Jean-Baptiste shall not be obliged to reimburse to any one whomsoever, the taxes or assessments collected under the valuation and collection rolls made, prepared and homologated, for the village of St. Jean-Baptiste and at present in force; which said valuation and collection rolls are hereby declared legal for all purposes whatsoever; and the said taxes shall be considered as having been legally paid. Taxes, &c., collected under village rolls not to be reimbursed by town.

The said by-laws shall be applied in the manner prescribed when they were passed, by substituting the corporate name of "the town of St. Jean-Baptiste" for that of "the corporation of the village of St. Jean-Baptiste," or "the municipality of the village of St. Jean-Baptiste." Rolls, &c., of village declared legal.

47. The moveable or immoveable properties, situate in the municipality of the town of St. Jean-Baptiste, and Application of by-laws. Certain property, though exempt from taxes, liable for certain assessments.

which, according to law, are or shall be declared exempt from taxation for the purpose of meeting the general expenses of the municipality, shall nevertheless be taxable for the purpose of making and maintaining roads, streets, water-courses, drains and ditches, and the proprietors, possessors, holders and occupants of such properties shall be bound to pay to the town the special tax fixed by the council by by-law to meet the expenditure occasioned by such works.

Also for water rates.

The said properties shall likewise be assessable, and the owners thereof shall be bound to pay all special assessments or water-rates which may be imposed by the council.

Levy of such taxes.

These taxes shall be levied and collected in the usual manner.

Taxes upon common carriers.

48. The town of St. Jean-Baptiste shall have power to levy, apart from the taxes mentioned in the various sections of this act, a special tax upon persons and companies plying, within the limits of the town of St. Jean-Baptiste, the trade of common carriers, either for the transporting of merchandize or travellers within the limits of the town of St. Jean-Baptiste or from within the limits of the town to some other place.

Imposition of such taxes.

Such tax shall be imposed by a by-law to that effect and shall not exceed twenty dollars per annum for each vehicle, whether for summer or for winter use, employed in such trade of common carrier, and may be levied under the form of a license or otherwise, in such manner as the council shall decide.

Such taxes may be commuted for an annual payment.

The council of the town may, however, agree with all companies or persons, plying the said trade of common carrier, upon the payment of an annual sum for the privilege of so doing, and may use its discretion in granting such privilege.

Proviso.

But nothing in this act shall be considered as withdrawing the town of St. Jean-Baptiste from the effect of the provisions of article 583 of the Municipal Code.

Fiscal year.

49. The fiscal year for the town of St. Jean-Baptiste shall run from the first of January to the first of January of the following year, and at the end of each year the books of account of the town shall be audited and balanced.

Investment of sinking fund.

50. The council of the town of St. Jean-Baptiste shall have power, by a resolution to that effect, to invest, to the best advantage, in federal, provincial or municipal debentures, or the debentures of school corporations, the sinking-fund already accumulated by means of debentures issued under by-law No. 10 of the village, or any other sum to the credit of the town. Such sinking fund may be also employed in redeeming the debentures of the Village of St. Jean-Baptiste.

ANNEXATION.

51. The council of the town of St. Jean-Baptiste, shall have the power to pass any by-law to annex the territory of the town of St. Jean-Baptiste to the city of Montreal. Power of council to annex town to Montreal.

52. By such by-law it shall be provided under what conditions such annexation shall take place, as to the representation, in the council of the city of Montreal, of the inhabitants of the territory to be annexed, and as to the settlement of the debt of the town of St. Jean-Baptiste. Conditions of annexation.

53. The territory so annexed shall form one of the new wards, or shall form part of one or more of the wards of the city of Montreal, the number whereof shall be increased or diminished, or the limits whereof may be changed as the council of the city of Montreal may decide, and which it shall have power to do ; and such new ward so formed, which shall be known as the "St. Jean-Baptiste ward," and may be represented in the council of the said city of Montreal by a number of aldermen, not exceeding three, who, if possessing the qualifications required by the charter of the city of Montreal, shall be elected in the manner prescribed by such charter, by the municipal electors of the territory so annexed, having the qualifications required by the charter of the said city, a list of whom shall have been previously prepared with due diligence by the secretary-treasurer of the said town of St. Jean-Baptiste, who shall forward such list to the city clerk of the said city of Montreal. Name of the town after annexation. Aldermen.

54. Every by-law, passed by the council of the town of St. Jean-Baptiste to annex, upon the conditions therein mentioned, its territory to the city of Montreal, shall, in order to have force and effect and under pain of nullity, be duly approved by a vote of the majority of the council of the city of Montreal, to whom the power so to do is granted by this act, and shall further be approved, as soon as possible, by the majority of the municipal electors who are proprietors in the territory to be annexed, who have registered their votes upon such by-law. Approval of by-law for purpose of annexation.

55. After the above mentioned final approval by the electors of the territory so to be annexed, and within the thirty days following the forwarding of the list of electors Election of aldermen after annexation.

by the said secretary-treasurer to the said clerk of the said city as above mentioned, it shall be the duty of the council of the city of Montreal to proceed to the election of aldermen to represent the new ward in the council of the said city, which said aldermen shall remain in office as provided in the charter of the city of Montreal, or as shall be provided by any by-law to that effect.

Term of office.

Effect of complying with these formalities.

When these formalities shall have been complied with, the new ward shall be incorporated with the city of Montreal, and shall be subject to all its existing or future by-laws, and shall enjoy all the rights, privileges and immunities conferred upon the said city, by its charter and the acts which amend the same, and shall be subject to all duties and obligations provided for in the said charter and its amendments; but none of the provisions of this act shall have the effect of modifying or amending the charter of the city of Montreal, except in so far as what is mentioned in this act respecting annexation, and only in so far as to modify and amend section 4 of the said charter of the said city of Montreal, 37 Victoria, chapter 51

37 V., c. 51, s. 4, modified.

Sections, 50, 70, 86, 87 and 239 of 40 V., c. 29, not to apply to town.

Municipal Code to apply to town.

56. Sections 50, 70, 86, 87, and 239 of the Town Corporations General Clauses Act, and of the acts amending the same, shall not apply to the town of St. Jean-Baptiste and are specially excepted; and all the provisions of the Municipal Code of this province, not inconsistent with this act, shall apply thereto and form part thereof and specially article 942a, so long as the said town of St. Jean-Baptiste, shall not be annexed to the said city.

Sections 51, 52, 53, 54, and 55 of this act to apply to Côte St. Louis and St. Louis de Mile End.

57. Whereas the interests of the municipalities of the villages of Côte St. Louis and St. Louis de Mile End are identical with those of the village of St. Jean-Baptiste, respecting their annexation to the city of Montreal, it is hereby enacted that sections 51, 52, 53, 54, and 55 of this act shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to the said municipalities.

Provisions as to school commissioners of village of St. Jean Baptiste when annexed to Montreal.

58. When annexed to the city of Montreal, the school commissioners of the municipality of the village of St. Jean-Baptiste may continue to form a distinct corporation under the name of the "school commissioners of the parish of St. Jean-Baptiste de Montréal," subject to the provisions of the laws concerning public instruction.

Provisions as to dissentient schools in new wards of Montreal.

59. The dissentient school trustees of all the new wards, annexed to the city of Montreal, shall transfer all their school property and all arrears of school taxes to the Protestant board of school commissioners of the city of Montreal, who shall thenceforward have the management of the said schools; and the said new wards shall be subject to the laws now in force in the city of Montreal for all the purposes of protestant schools.

60. This act shall come into force on the day of its sanction. Coming into force.

C A P. X C.

An Act to incorporate the Town of Sainte Cunégonde.

[Assented to 10th June, 1884]

WHEREAS the provisions of the Municipal Code no longer suffice for the present requirements of the municipality of the village of Sainte Cunégonde and it has become necessary to establish more ample provisions for the internal management of the said village, and whereas a petition to the Legislature has been duly presented to that effect; Therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislature of Quebec, enacts as follows: Preamble.

CORPORATION.

1. The inhabitants of the territory known as the "village of Sainte Cunégonde" and their successors shall be and are hereby constituted a body politic and corporate under the name of the "town of Sainte Cunégonde," and, by the same name, they and their successors shall have perpetual succession, and shall have power to sue and be sued, implead and be impleaded in all courts, and in all actions, causes and suits at law whatsoever, and shall have a common seal, with power to alter and modify the same at their will and pleasure; and shall be in law capable of receiving by donation, or by legacy, acquiring, possessing, transferring and alienating any property, movable or immovable, for the use of the town, of becoming parties to any contracts or agreements in the management of the affairs of the town, and of giving or accepting any notes, bills of exchange, bonds, obligations, judgments, securing the payment of any sum of money borrowed or loaned, or for the execution of any duty, right or thing whatsoever. Village of Ste. Cunégonde incorporated as a town. Name of town. General powers.

2. All acts, orders, by-laws and resolutions, now in force shall remain in force until they are amended, annulled or repealed by the council of the said town or by any other competent authority, and all notes, debentures and obligations whatever consented to, contracted or issued by the Present by-laws, &c., continued.
