C A P. LXVII.

An Act to incorporate the religious congregation called
"Temple Emmanu-El."

[Assented to 30th March, 1883.]

Preamble

WHEREAS the persons hereinafter mentioned have, by their petition, represented that there exists in the city of Montreal a religious congregation, composed of persons belonging to the Jewish faith, and of which the petitioners, who are all British subjects, are members ;

Whereas they have a place of worship or synagogue, called "Temple Emmanu-El," and they have prayed to be incorporated under such name for religious purposes and for the government of such congregation, and whereas it is expedient to grant their prayer ; Therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislature of Quebec, enacts as follows :

Certain persons incorporated.

1. Benedix Boas, Levi Abrahams, Moses Sternberg, Bernard Kortarski, Adolphe Goldstein, L. Isaacs, Jacob L.

Moss, John Michaels, and such other persons as may hereafter become members of such congregation, are hereby constituted a corporation under the name of "Temple ^{Name.} Emmanu-El."

2. The corporation shall have perpetual succession and a common seal, and may, as occasion may require and for the purposes which it has in view, acquire, accept and receive and hold, under any title whatsoever, moveable or immoveable property for its exclusive use and benefit, and hypothecate, sell, assign, lease or exchange the same and acquire others in lieu thereof; provided the annual revenue derived from such immoveable property shall not exceed the sum of ten thousand dollars, and that such revenue be devoted exclusively to the purposes of such congregation and to the payment of expenses in connection with divine worship. ^{General powers.} ^{Limitation of amount of real estate to be held.}

3. The secular affairs of the congregation shall be administered by a board of nine trustees elected at the annual general meeting of the congregation, who shall elect from amongst their number a chairman, and vice-chairman, at their first meeting, and shall remain in office for one year, but shall be eligible for re-election. ^{Trustees for administration of affairs of congregation.}

The persons above-mentioned shall form a provisional board of trustees and shall remain in office until they are replaced by the regular board elected at the first general meeting of the members of the congregation, which meeting shall be held within the three months following the coming into force of this act and shall be convened by the provisional trustees. ^{Provisional board.} ^{First election.}

Five trustees shall form a quorum.

^{Quorum of trustees.}

4. At such annual meetings, the said congregation may make all rules and by-laws not inconsistent with this act, and repeal the same and make others in lieu thereof, subject to the same restriction, for the government and administration of the congregation and to provide for the admission and removal of its members. ^{Power to make rules, &c.}

5. The trustees shall not, however, alienate, hypothecate or otherwise pledge the immoveables of the corporation or congregation without the consent of the majority of the members present at a meeting convened by notice given at least one month beforehand, by the chairman of the trustees or, in his default, by the vice-chairman. ^{Powers of trustees limited.}

6. The members of the congregation are hereby exempted from inscribing their names, age, occupation and residence. ^{Members of congregation exempt from inscribing} names in prothonotary's

register. dence in the register kept by the prothonotary of the district of Montreal for persons of the Jewish faith.

Vacancies in board of trustees.

7. Every vacancy, arising in the board of trustees, between the periods of the annual elections, shall be filled by a vote of the majority of the trustees remaining in office, at a special meeting called for the purpose, after notice given at least eight days beforehand.
