Roberts, in usufruct and unto the children, issue and to be born of the marriage of the said Edward Roberts, with Dame Emily C. Hungerford or of any subsequent marriage, in ownership, a certain piece of land, known and distinguished as parts of the lots numbers two and three, in the second range of lots of the township of Shefford aforesaid, supposed to contain two hundred acres of land in superficies, more or less;

Whereas a large proportion of the said land has not been cleared nor brought under cultivation;

Whereas, on account of ill-health and insufficient capital, the said Edward L. Roberts, cannot clear the said land and make the improvements thereon requisite to cultivate the same profitably;

Whereas the said Duke Roberts has offered and is willing to give to the said Edward L. Roberts, in usufruct and to his children as aforesaid, in ownership, in exchange for the said land, certain other lots of land, now under cultivation and of greater value than the said land;

Whereas the said first mentioned piece of land is free from all hypothecs, charges and encumbrances, saving the right of dower of the said Dame Emily C. Hungerford, as stipulated in the said deed of donation;

Whereas it has been represented by the petition of the said Duke Roberts and Edward L. Roberts, that the said Edward L. Roberts and his children, as aforesaid, would greatly benefit by such exchange;

And whereas it is expedient to authorize the said exchange;

Moreover, whereas at the village of Waterloo aforesaid, on the nineteenth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, by virtue of a deed of donation, passed before Thomas Brassard, notary public, and duly registered in the registry office of the county of Shefford, the hereinbefore named Duke Roberts did give and grant unto his son Silas, Stewart Roberts, in usufruct and unto the children issue and to be born of the marriage of the said Silas Stewart Roberts with Dame Elizabeth Sarah Edson, or of any subsequent marriage, in ownership, the immoveables hereinafter described, to wit:

township of Shefford, bounded as follows : east by the lands of James Doonon, south by the Yamaska river, north by the concession line, and running west to a point in a mill pond, without buildings ; .

Whereas the said Silas Stewart Roberts has not the means to have the said lands cultivated and kept in good order, and the said lands cannot be cultivated with advantage, and are deteriorating more and more, and it would be to the advantage of the said Silas Stewart Roberts and his children as aforesaid that he should be authorized to sell the same ;

Whereas the said last mentioned immovables are free from all hypothecs, charges and encumbrances, save the right dower of the said Dame Elizabeth Sarah Edson, as stipulated in the said deed of donation, secondly hereinabove mentioned ;

Whereas it has been represented, by the petition of the said Duke Roberts and Silas Stewart Roberts, that the said Silas Stewart Roberts and his children as aforesaid would greatly benefit by the sale of the said immovables and the investment of the proceeds thereof ;
