CAP. LXXXVI.

An Act to authorize: "L'Union Saint-Joseph de St. Joseph de Lévis" to reduce and commute the amount of the relief which it pays.

[Assented to 24th July, 1880.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS there has existed, for several years, in the parish of St. Joseph de Lévis, an association for mutual benefit and assistance, duly incorporated under the name of: "L'Union St. Joseph de St. Joseph de Lévis"; whereas the amount of assistance given to sick members of the said association and to the widows of deceased members is so high, in proportion to the contributions which it receives from its members, that, since two years, its expenditure has always exceeded its receipts, and in consequence of this state of things, its reserve fund has been gradually decreased and will soon be exhausted; whereas several members, foreseeing that in the near future, the society will be unable to afford relief to such of its members as may be entitled thereto, and that, consequently, it will be useless for them to form part thereof, threaten to retire; whereas the receipts of the society and the state of its finances do not allow of its giving to each of the widows of its members who are entitled thereto, any greater relief than a sum of one hundred and fifty dollars in all; Therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislature of Quebec, enacts as follows:

26 V., c. 65,
amended.

1. The act, 28 Vict., chap. 65, incorporating the society of: "L'Union St. Joseph de St. Joseph de Lévis," is amended as follows:

Commutation of relief to widows, &c.

1. Thesaid society of: "L'Union St. Joseph de St. Joseph de Lévis" is authorized to commute the relief which it now pays weekly to the widows of its deceased members into a single payment of one hundred and fifty dollars each.
